

The most awful thing is when I am calling my friends who stay in Ukraine, and they do not answer immediately. Every day may be their last day.

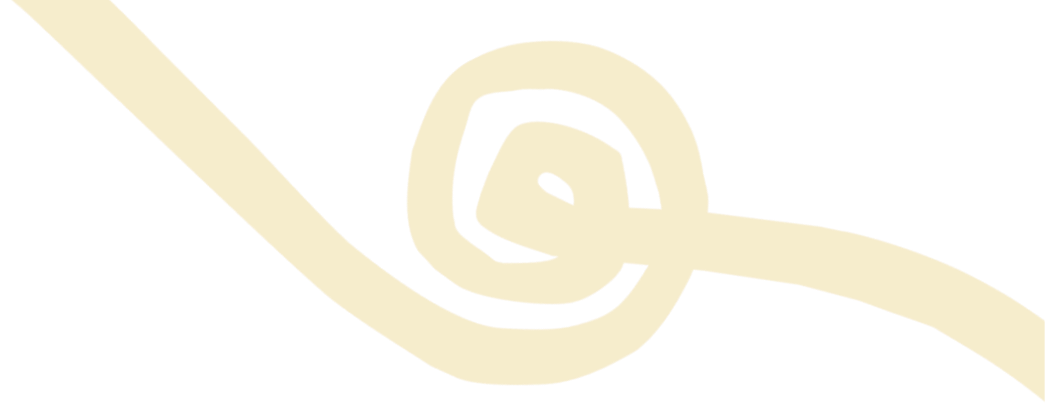

Lesea, 15 years old

I still remember the sound of shelling and the lights. I was staying under the bed, but was not feeling safe.

Amira, 13 years old

Even now, I have nights when I wake up and I feel like I am hearing that sound.

Nicolai, 11 years old

I was the most afraid at night when due to the bombing, the windows in our house got smashed. At that moment, we had nowhere to run.
