

APPENDIX 2

The situation of interethnic projects, promoting the cultural, linguistic, religious and citizens' rights belonging to national minorities, as well as combating intolerance made by the Department for Interethnic Relations at its initiative or in partnership with structures in the country and abroad (public institutions, non-governmental organizations, associations and foundations, international bodies, etc.) as well as for non-reimbursable financing according to the provisions of Law no. 350/2005 on the regime of non-reimbursable grants from public funds allocated for non-profit activities of general interest, with subsequent amendments and completions.

Year 2015

1. At DIR initiative:

Project title	Location/ Period	Target group/beneficiaries	Project Summary (purpose, objectives, etc.)	Amount approved by DIR (Lei)
Promoting interculturality in school space, with a focus on Roma issues	November 17-20, 2015 / Sinaia, Prahova County	20 teachers from pre-university education, who teach in Romani or Romani language, the history and traditions of Roma	The development and extension of teachers' competencies in non-formal education, the assumption of intercultural competences in education, by strengthening specialized knowledge and practice was pursued. The theoretical foundations, principles, values, dimensions and objectives of intercultural education in general and elements of knowledge of Roma language, traditions, history and culture have been approached within the program.	17,051.95 lei with VAT
Plastic Mosaic. Italian artists and their guests	Bucharest December 3, 2015	Parliamentarians of national minorities in Romania	Presentation of the Italian cultural heritage.	6.000 lei with VAT included
Our show in Hungarian	Bucharest,	Performers of programs in	Event dedicated to presenting the book "A Mi	6.750 lei cu

language	December 14	Hungarian and in the languages of national minorities.	Magyar Adásunk" (Our show in Hungarian language).	VAT included
Young people for diversity and intercultural dialogue	Bulgaria and Turkey, September 2-10	High school students who received the first prize at the national stage of the native language and literature Olympiads held in 2015	Non-formal, multi-ethnic education project, opportunity and experience for participating pupils to intercultural learning and education in the spirit of respect for ethno-cultural diversity, dialogue and mutual knowledge	54,994 lei with VAT included
Interethnic relations in Transylvania. Militaria Medievalia in Central and Southeast Europe, Interethnic Relations in Transylvania. Militaria Mediaevalia in Central and South-Eastern Europe, 8th edition	Sibiu, October 15-18	Specialists in history and archaeology, university professors from the country, as well as specialists from most centres with university and museum tradition in Hungary, Bulgaria, Poland, Austria, Germany, France, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, the United Kingdom and Israel.	Purpose: To bring together experts from Romania and abroad to Sibiu to discuss the history of Transylvanian multiculturalism, the perpetuated relationships in this ethnic mosaic over time, and the way in which these realities were reflected in neighbouring spaces in the Middle Ages. In order to increase its impact and openness to the general public, but also to meet its increasing interest, the event included two lectures in an informal setting of two of the conference specialists invited at the conference	47,050 lei with VAT
"ONGFest" - the national festival of NGOs in Romania	Bucharest, May, 8 – 9	150 non-governmental organizations from all over the country and abroad, including representatives of national minority organizations in Romania.	Theme: Strengthening civil society and increasing its contribution to democracy and sustainable development; supporting a conference, and organizing parallel workshops for NGOs participating in the festival. On this occasion, one of the thematic workshops was dedicated to national minority organizations on the topic of writing projects / applications for funding.	68 200 lei with VAT included
The opening of art exhibitions „Cei care ar fi putut fi” (“Those who could have been”)	Bucharest, May 21 st	National Minority Organizations	Through the exhibition of artists such as Alex Ivanov, Maria Dobrescu and Mihai Criste on the occasion of the World Cultural Diversity Day, the creating potential of Romanian artists and artists belonging to a national minority under several forms of cultural expression was	8 820 lei VAT included shown. Cultural diversity is essential for the full realization of human rights and fundamental freedoms, and tolerance and mutual respect between peoples and cultures are forms of stimulating interethnic dialogue.

Book and Music Salon - V-Edition	Sinaia, between August 12 and 15	Target group: the public in Sinaia, the media (local, national), Beneficiaries: members of national minority organizations, local authorities	The project aimed at supporting the intercultural dialogue by providing the necessary framework for the presentation to the general public of traditional objects and costumes, prints, books, periodicals, cultural events, etc., belonging to the organizations of the national minorities, 16 of them being present at the event.	35,496 lei VAT included
The multicultural identity of the Danube Region	Brasov October 8-10	Homologs of the Department for Interethnic Relations of the Republic of Moldova, Bulgaria, Croatia, Hungary, officials of other Danubian countries in Romania, experts and journalists from the country who participated in the previous stages organized by DIR within the EUSDR program, representatives of national minorities in Romania (RO.AS.IT, DFGR).	Objectives: To make suggestions for capitalizing on this lesser-known cultural heritage; at national level - is a plus of the participation of both journalists and experts as well as representatives of minorities who have had the opportunity to present their proposals; at the international level - the project is formed in a Danube platform of intercultural dialogue that will write the Blue Book on Cultural Identity of the Danube. This program was initiated by DIR, this initiative has been answered so far by the offices for national minorities in 5 Danubian countries.	76,290 lei VAT included
Managing interethnic programs and projects in combating intolerance. Project evaluation	Bucharest 24.09 – 2.10	Direct Beneficiaries: The 5 participants from DIR Indirect Beneficiaries: Department for Interethnic Relations: Non-governmental organizations submitting funding projects at DIR	By organizing this training program, DIR has achieved a number of objectives such as developing project management capacity, starting with the selection and / or development phase, by developing skills for their assessment. The training program approached through the lecturers who supported it, themes such as: personal training for evaluation; organization of	5 000 lei VAT included.

			the evaluation process; the evaluation of project proposals, etc.
Intercultural School	July 9 – 12, 2015 in Mahmudia, Tulcea County;  September 17 – 20, 2015 in Sighisoara, Mures county	Participants were a part of the winners of the 2nd / 3rd place at the National Olympiads of Mother Tongues, a winning part of the DIR Essay and Banner Competition organized in May-June 2015. Thus, the group of participants brought together representatives of different ethnic minorities, as well as of the majority.	Participants formed groups on social networks, stayed in touch and in permanent dialogue. In addition, they have learned interactively about different concepts of ethnic minorities, interethnic relations and discrimination. Throughout the program, the students had the opportunity to meet representatives of the German community in Sighisoara, the Romanian community and the Hungarian community in Targu Mures. This program has both a reward for the participating educational students on educational level, too. The students particularly appreciated this initiative, many of them not having the chance so far to visit the country's multi-ethnic regions and to speak with representatives of other ethnic communities other than those to which they belong.	54.890 VAT included
Diversity and cultural heritage through media. Visits and exchange of good practices in multi-ethnic regions in the Danube basin	June 17 – 21, 2015, in Alba and Bihor counties (Alba Iulia, Beiuș, Târcaia, Oradea, Aleșd, Palota) and a visit to Gyula, Hungary	The participants- journalists, inter-ethnic relations and multicultural heritage experts and representatives of local communities and local public authorities in the field of interethnic relations and multicultural heritage and representatives of DIR The informal working group created in 2014 continued to work on journalistic products that could be presented in the EUSDR	The visit sought to further promote the area's multicultural heritage to work more closely with national minorities in their area; the national minorities in the visited areas have understood that their material and immaterial heritage is valuable and deserves to be known and promoted with more courage through their own programs and collaborations / partnerships with other fora; all those involved have been able to convince that, although not yet developed in Romania, cultural tourism can represent a chance for the development of the area, nature and culture providing a favourable framework for self-support of local	53,050 lei VAT included activities and used to draw up the Danube platform for intercultural dialogue.	communities.

--	--	--	--------------	--

2. Projects developed by DIR in partnership with other institutions:

Project title	Name of the partner institution	Type of project / target group / beneficiaries	Project Summary (venue, period, purpose, goals)	Amount approved by DIR (Lei)
My multicultural journey	Ministry of Education and Scientific Research	Teachers from 13 counties, representing the minorities: Hungarian, Serbian, Slovak, Italian, Roma, Greek, German, Tatar etc.	Oradea, Bihor County, September 17-20, 2015. The 50 participants received an accredited training program in blended learning - 60 hours, of which 30 hours on-line and 30 hours " face to face ", totalling 15 credits.	28 950 lei VAT included
Asia-Europe educational forum	Alumnus Club UNESCO	100 leading personalities from 34 countries, including China, Italy, Russia, Belarus and Romania	The project has been instrumental in facilitating dialogue and promoting understanding and reconciliation between cultures and religions, in particular by supporting projects in the fields of education and youth. Among the objectives was also the promotion, through dialogue, of innovative solutions for effective intercultural education to help alleviate the current tensions in some cases between different spaces.	51 500 lei VAT included
Autonomy on ethnic basis - theory and practice	Dr. Bernady Gyorgy Cultural Foundation	National Minorities in Romania	A two-stage project aimed primarily at raising awareness among minorities in the region of the application of the principles laid down in the Charter of Regional or Minority Languages	13,510 lei VAT included
Solidarity Festival – Pakivalo, 2nd Edition	"Romano Butiq" Association	Cultural project addressed to the Roma minority but also to all those interested in knowing aspects of this minority.	The festival contributed to interethnic interaction, overcoming language barriers, promoting the Roma minority. This festival is organized annually in memory of Roma	30,000 lei with VAT included sociologist, Nicolae Gheorghe (1946 - 2013). PAKIV (in Romani language) is a pact of loyalty, trust and honour among people. The program included concerts (Mahala Rai Banda, Leonard Iordache, Mexicanu Band, Kalo Me, Romano ButiQ Band and others), film projections, theatre shows, painting and DIY workshops, street dance demonstrations, exhibitions dedicated to inform the public about Roma history and personalities, etc

Hungarian Banat Days	Banat Community Association	Direct beneficiaries: folk dancers, theatre actors, writers, historians, interpreters, members of non-governmental organizations, etc. Romanians, Hungarians, Germans. Indirect beneficiaries: the interested public in Timisoara, as well as the rural public from Lugoj, Dumbrăvița, Tormac, Jimbolia, Moșnița Nouă, Sânnicolau Mare, Țipari, Bodo, Otelec, Dumbrava, Cherestur localities, or from abroad, Vrșac (Serbia).	Cultural project, dedicated to the general public by performing exhibitions, shows.	10 000 lei with VAT included
The seven wise men	Greek Culture and Civilization Center of Drobeta Tr.Severin	Educational / Gymnasium students willing to know Greek history and culture	Drobeta Tr.Severin, 09.04.15	4,000 lei with VAT included
"Szejke" Folklore Festival	Pro Culturae Odorhei Association	Festival / bands belonging to several national minorities (Hungarian, Romanian, Roma)	The program addressed the folk ensembles that promote the traditions of the national minorities in the Harghita area and beyond. The aim was to promote culture and intercultural dialogue by developing	10.000 lei with VAT included communication skills in a more complex cultural environment; through the knowledge of traditions, the highlighting of the common elements, but also the intensification of the relations between the co-minorities through the knowledge of the traditions. Cultivating respect for both the values of their own culture and the values of other cultures.

Academic Debate and Film Projection- "Invisible Roma Days"	Impreună (Together) Community Development Agency	Academic debate and film projection; program focused on combating intolerance and xenophobia; educational program; cultural program; about 100 participants, Roma and non-Roma students, academics and diplomats.	Bucharest, April 6; Purpose: young Roma with potential encouraged to become vocal actors against discrimination and models for other young people.	7.241,60 lei VAT included
Memory as an act of justice - commemorating 75 years of the anti-Jewish pogrom in Dorohoi	Federation of Jewish Communities in Romania	Culture / Education International (symposium, museum inauguration, religious ceremony, concert, "Life March" on a 2.5 km route). Young people public up to 30 years old, high school students, students, specialists in various fields, journalists, Jews, non-Jews; survivors and followers of the victims of the pogrom and deportees in Transnistria – from Israel and Romania; representatives of Jewish communities in Romania	Dorohoi, Botoșani County, July 07-09, 2015  Knowing and promoting the truth about the Dorohoi Pogrom, commemorating the victims, forming healthy moral habits to fight discrimination of any kind; informing the public - community, local, national and international level on the interethnic climate in Romania that led to the 1940 anti-Jewish pogrom; focusing on historical, cultural and educational dimensions; strengthening cooperation with the Local Public Administration, subordinated institutions, other organizations and institutions, understanding and promoting in the collective memory of interethnic, inter-confessional and cultural dialogue for the social good and avoiding any form of anti-Semitism, xenophobia or racism, combating them.	30,430 lei VAT included

Summer School in Gărâna 2015	German State Theatre Timișoara	Culture / Education (art workshops, arts communication sessions)  Direct Beneficiaries: actors of the German State Theatre Timișoara and creators from the field of performing arts, as well as from students from the West University of Timișoara, from different ethnic groups  Indirect beneficiaries, spectators, who take advantage of the project's results during the theatrical season: approx. 11,000 viewers per year, of different nationalities	August 23 - September 6, 2015, the village of Gărâna, locality of Brebu-Nou, Caraș-Severin County  Purpose / objectives: Increasing communication between ethnic and cultural artists; preserving and promoting the ethnic, cultural and linguistic identity of creative artists from national minority performances; the dissemination between artists of artistic means of creation specific to different cultures; promoting cultural diversity; increasing the performance of the activities performed by the actors of the German State Theatre Timișoara and the students from the acting section of the Timișoara Music Faculty; to stimulate the development of cultural projects in unconventional spaces; reactivating places with German cultural tradition; promoting the dissemination of cultural training activities.	16.100 lei with VAT included
EUROTHALIA European Theatre Festival 2015	German State Theatre Timișoara	Cultural / interethnic (interethnic, international theatre festival)  beneficiaries:  -12 invited theatre groups from Germany, Belgium, Poland, Russia, Latvia, Republic of Moldova, Lithuania, Romania, etc., with more than 15 performances;  - over 2000 spectators aged 18-65 (pupils, students, retired);  - over 50 specialized critics and cultural promoters from the	Timisoara, Timis County, from October 8-15, 2015  Aim / Objectives: Developing a diverse and competitive cultural life at European level as a defining element for affirmation of national identity and social cohesion in Timis County; education and artistic formation of the cultural consumer - through the diversity of the repertoire that the festival proposes, from classical theatre to contemporary, experimental theatre; supporting the affirmation of young talents - by presenting performances bearing the signatures of young theatre creators	40,000 lei with VAT included

		country and abroad; - over 250 local artists and invited artists
"Intercultural Connections" International Exhibition	Partner- Inter-Art Foundation 21 - 31 March 2015 at the United Nations Palace in Geneva, Switzerland	Direct Beneficiaries: Plastic Artists Participating in the Program (International Program)  Indirect / Public Beneficiaries: The audience and guests participating in the 60th anniversary of Romania being a UN member. The exact number of people in the public who participated in organized intercultural events (exhibitions, concerts) can be estimated to approximately 300 people	At international level, the promotion of contemporary art and interculturality values has been achieved through the value of artists and the different cultures they represent. Due to the success of this program, the DIR was invited by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to attend the 60th anniversary of the United Nations foundation, to present its work to all UN member states. Appreciations regarding the visibility of the project in the media and the Internet: The Inter-Art Foundation, as a partner in the program, has promoted the event through numerous posters and banners. At the same time, the event was promoted by the other partners in this project: the Romanian Cultural Institute, the Permanent Mission of Romania to the United Nations in Geneva, the "Liviu Rebreanu" Cultural Centre. At international level, the promotion of contemporary art and interculturality values has been achieved through the value of artists and the different cultures they represent.	9 560 lei VAT included
The 60th anniversary of Romania's membership of the United Nations. The International Art Exhibition "Towards Progress in the Post-2015 Development Agenda and Climate	Partner- Inter-Art Foundation  14 November - 16 December 2015 at the United Nations	6 participants plastic artists, of which 2 Hungarians and 4 Romanians completing the intercultural character of the program. Compared to the number of participants estimated in the partnership proposal of 6 artists	At international level, the promotion of contemporary art and interculturality values has been achieved through the value of artists and the different cultures they represent. DIR's activity as a partner in this program is part of the annual program "Promoting Ethnic and Cultural Diversity and Intercultural Dialogue".	12 000 lei with VAT included

Change Issues	Headquarters in New York, USA	Direct Beneficiaries: Plastic Artists Participating in the Program (International Program) Indirect / Public Beneficiaries: The audience and guests participating in the 60th anniversary of Romania being a UN member. The exact number of people in the public who participated in organized intercultural events (exhibitions, concerts) can be estimated to approximately 1000 people.
"INTER-ART International Art Camp	Partner-Interart Foundation August 10-25 Aiud	47 plastic artists participants, out of which 17 from Romania (Romanians and Hungarians), 3 Germans (Saxons from Romania) established in Germany, 2 Hungarians from Romania, established in Hungary, 11 from neighbouring countries (Croatia, Serbia, Moldova, Ukraine, Poland, Bulgaria, Greece), some of them of Romanian origin, belonging to national minorities but established in the mother countries. The remaining 14 participants were from different countries, different cultures, completing the intercultural character of the program.	On a regional level, this project has a particular impact, being supported by local authorities in Alba, as it promotes Romanian art and the Alba region both nationally and internationally. On the international level, the model of Romanian interethnic cohabitation becomes known in the countries of origin of the participants and the works carried out within this creative camp are part of a traveling exhibition invited to various international events to which Romania is a party (e.g. in Geneva and New York on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of the founding of the United Nations).	35 000 with VAT included

3. Through non-reimbursable financing:

Project title	Name of the promoter	Type of project / target group / beneficiaries (specify if other minorities participated. What were they?)	Project Summary (Place, Period, Purpose, Objectives)	Amount approved by DIR (Lei)
Creation camps for Serbian children and young people	Union of Serbs of Romania	Target group: 208 Serbian and Romanian children and young people aged between 8 and 25, coming from localities of Serb majority populations in the western area of the country (Sânnicolau Mare, Reșița, Timișoara, Radimna, Socol, Moldova Veche, Belobreșca)	Baziaș, Caraș-Severin County First stage: 22 - 28.06 2015 Second Stage: 6 - 11.07.2015 Third Stage: 26.07 - 2.08.2015 Fourth stage: 3 - 9.08.2015 Through this project, an organized cultural framework was created, in which children and young people could express and develop in the spirit of respect and awareness of traditional, cultural, artistic and linguistic values.	32 650 lei VAT included
IntercultuRom Dialogue	Association for Development and Social Inclusion - ADIS	43 participating Roma students, who represented three gymnasium schools in Ialomita County	Rânca, Gorj County 3 - 6 September 2015. The aim of the project was to promote intercultural education through non-formal methods and by involving communities, whether or not Roma, in order to orient the children from the educational institutions in Ialomita County to a positive interethnic environment.	19 875 lei VAT included
Educational program for intercultural communication	Tranzit Foundation - Tranzit Alapitvány	32 children (Romanians, Hungarians, Roma, and other ethnic groups) aged between 7 and 14 years, organized in two groups of 16 people.	Cluj Napoca, 7 - 12 September 2015 The workshops were led by 4 coordinators from different artistic fields. The activities ended with an exhibition of children's works.	12 000 lei with VAT included

Preserving the Identity of National Minorities and Combating Discrimination	Holnap Cultural Association, Oradea	The publication is addressed to the Hungarian public, but also to the Roma ethnic, speakers of Hungarian	Oradea, Bihor County Editing, printing, in Hungarian, of two appearances of the periodical called Minoritas. It contains articles about the traditions and cultures of the two minorities and not only. The periodical (each of the two appearances) was printed in 3000 copies and was distributed by mail to Erdely Riport's weekly subscribers, and through 15 reformed parishes reached Hungarian readers, thus contributing to the promotion of ethno-cultural diversity in Romania and the cultural values of national minorities.	15 975,20 lei VAT included
Camp of Roma Students - Let's Learn to Live Together!	Association for Inclusion and Social Progress	The event was attended by 38 Roma people, students, master students, doctoral students who study in various university centres in the country.	Iași, Iași County October 16 - 18, 2015. The aim of this project was to develop intercultural dialogue, promote cultural diversity, social inclusion and equal opportunities among young Roma to establish a cultural bridge, improve interpersonal and professional relationships between members of the same multicultural ethnic group, prevent and combat attitudes and discriminatory behaviours.
National Minorities' Theatres Colloquium – XIth edition		Actors, directors, theatre critics	24.09-04.10.2015.2015, Gheorgheni, XIth edition of the National Minorities Theatre Colloquium. The colloquium was a meeting point for the Hungarian, German and Yiddish theatres in Romania, as well as a unique festival format in Europe dedicated to the theme of local identities, problematic relations of multi-ethnic or multicultural communities. For 11 days, 23 theatre shows were presented, 464 guests (actors, directors, theatre critics,	150,000 lei with VAT included playwrights, media representatives, theatre people) were present and more than 2500 spectators attended.

Youth for Diversity and Multiculturalism	Federation of Youth Organizations in the Ciuc Region		17.07-25.10.2015, Harghita County, 150 young people who participated in traditional crafts and dances, as a result of which they supported performances and exhibitions promoting ethnic, linguistic, cultural and religious diversity in the Ciuc region.	15 800 lei VAT included
Together for the community	Youth Club Association of Sfântu Gheorghe	Population in Covasna County	October 23-31, 2015, Arcuș and Sfântu Gheorghe, Promoting intercultural and interethnic dialogue, development of cooperation between Romanian, Hungarian and Roma young people from Covasna County.	43000 with VAT included
Saint Stephen ("Szent István") International Folklore Festival, XVII - th edition	Szint Kulturális Egyesület Cultural Association	Festival	In 2015, the XVIIth edition took place between August 19th and 24th, the program being held in Cluj-Napoca and in 8 other localities of Cluj, Sălaj and Alba County: la Vlaha, Luna de Sus, Dej, Turda, Gilău, Jebucu, Sâncraiu, Mirăslău. The main events of the festival were: Opening Gala at the Great Stage in Unirii Square - Cluj, Reception, Parade and show at Vlaha, Luna de Sus, Dej, Turda, Gilău, Jebucu, Sâncraiu, Mirăslău, Reception of the Cluj City Hall at the Central Park Casino.	20,000 lei with VAT included
We live together in the cradle of the Danube, a space of unity, peace and multiculturalism in Europe,	German Language Teachers Association in Romania	Conference / Teachers of German language	The German Language Teachers Association organized the 23rd conference "We live together in the cradle of the Danube, a space of unity, peace, multiculturalism in Europe", held in Brasov on 15 - 18 October 2015. The program was organized in the form of plenary sessions, debates and workshops. Issues such as: the importance of peaceful coexistence	65,221.53 lei VAT included of the populations in our country and in Europe have been debated; the role of the educator / teacher in the formation of European competences of the ethical, civic, intercultural and democratic conscience of the European citizen. A book exhibition in German was also held throughout the conference, and the 27th issue of the magazine Deutsch aktuell was published.

Multicultural Valences at the Comedy International Film Festival, 7th edition	European Foundation for Urban Culture	Festival, actors / spectators	The festival took place from 16 to 25 October, being one of the projects included in the program "Cluj – 2015 European Youth Capital". Each day of the event provided the broad audience, mainly made up of young people under the age of 30, access to various productions, film or theatre, meetings with directors, actors or film industry people from countries such as Hungary, Germany, Iceland, Great Britain, but also Malaysia or Australia. In fact, the 2015 edition record reflects this mix of cultures, with the awards being offered to a wide variety of films not only as a country of origin but also as a theme.	25,427.67 lei VAT included
"Yuppi - Multicultural Therapy Camp for Young People with Diabetes"	Yuppi tabormozgalom Association/ Yuppi camp movement/ Yuppi Camping Motion	Cultural or intercultural program; youth program; camp for young ethnic minority ethnicity with diabetes	Locality of Șăulia, Mureș County, June 27 - July 4;	10,987,20 lei VAT included
Summer camp "Language, tradition, creation"	Cserevar/ Cserevar Egyesulet	Program focused on multi-cultural and intercultural dialogue; educational program; cultural or	Locality of Lunca Mureșului, Alba County, July 27 - August 1; increasing the communication skills of Hungarian children in Romanian	11,735.00 lei VAT included

	Association	intercultural program; 65 Hungarian and Romanian children	through Romanian children; round table on tolerance and interculturality to eliminate inferiority complexes; wood carving workshops, craftsmanship in ironware and plate painting, to bring ethnicity closer to the region
20th edition of the creation camp, for professional "Minimum Party"	Association-Minimum Party Group	Program focused on multi-cultural or intercultural dialogue; focused on expressing / promoting ethnic and / or cultural identity; educational program; cultural or intercultural program; youth program; about 110 participants, invited (workshop coordinators, students, professional and amateur artists)	Locality of Gura Tisei (Plăieșii de Jos), Harghita County, July 29 - August 9; 10 Workshops of visual arts, photography, film, experimental theatre, dance, music, architecture, crafts, philosophy / aesthetics and literature were organized to encourage creativity by placing the camp in a natural setting as well as by lectures and theory of art.	21,600 lei VAT included
The printing of the book "Liturgical Songs for Men's Choir" with Audio Support	Union of Serbs of Romania	Focused on multi-cultural or intercultural dialogue; making of multimedia materials; pupils in gymnasium or high school and students;	Timișoara, 2 - 20 November; Purpose: to revive the activity of existing choirs and vocal groups alongside Slavic Orthodox churches, as well as to establish such new bands and to prepare new generations of singers.	29.260,00 lei VAT included
ETNIC 2015	Democratic Forum of Germans in Caraș-Severin County	Cultural  Population of Caraș-Severin, Timiș counties	Reșița, Caras-Severin County, June-October 2015  Book-album printing "A landscape rediscovered through the image. Photo in Banat Montana between 1860-1910 / Ein durch Bilder wiederentdecktes Gebiet. Die Photos in Banat Bergland in der Zeitspanne 1860-1910 ";  Purpose / objectives: knowledge and development of interethnic relations in Banat Montana and, implicitly, in Romania, the development of characteristic and applicable skills in the multi-ethnic and multi-cultural	31.244,50 lei VAT included

			space, the strengthening of the bridges between the different ethnic groups and the majority population; the knowledge of the folk port, the patrimonial objectives in terms of the photographic art and the ethnic culture of the ethnic groups, by drawing up the specific works and prints and organizing the manifestations; developing the sense of mutual understanding and acceptance of ethnicities in the southwest of the country, and making the most of the capacity of expressing the faith of various ethnic denominations through the song.
Folk Dance Caravan from Transylvania	MIERT Association	Cultural / intercultural Target group: young Romanian, Hungarian, German and Roma ethnicity in the communities where the shows were held Direct Beneficiaries: 62 dancers / artists / members of orchestras / bands and folk ensembles.	October 24 - November 22, 2015, in 5 localities (Mediaș, Brașov, Sfântu Gheorghe, Miercurea Nirajului and Zalău.  Purpose / objectives: to know and to value the immaterial cultural heritage represented by the folk dance specific to the ethnic, Romanian, Hungarian, German and Roma communities; stimulating interethnic and intercultural dialogue in events organized in the five localities; combating discrimination and prejudice through participation in joint activities.	43,000 lei with VAT included
„CONFLUENȚE 2015” Interethnic Festival	Association of Italians in Romania - RO.AS.IT	Cultural/intercultural Festival  Realization of information / documentation materials Target group: young people from ethnic communities who have to carry on the dance, the traditional song specific to the minority they	October 15 – 18 2015, at Iași, Iași County  The „CONFLUENȚE 2015” Interethnic Festival brought together 10 local ethnic communities such as Italian, Hungarian, Greek, Russian-Lipovan, Roma, Ukrainian, Polish, Serbian, Turkish-Muslim, Tatar and German in the project during the two days show on 16th and 17th of October at the Iași Students	42,000 lei with VAT included

		represent Beneficiaries: the general public Participants: Artistic ensembles of German, Greek, Hungarian, Polish, Lippovan-Russian, Roma, Tatar, Serbian, Ukrainian and Italian Number of participants: 240	Culture House, respectively in Podu Iloaiei, Iași County, artistic activities for the stage performance of the musical-choreographic folklore specific to the minority they represented. Knowledge and appreciation of the immaterial cultural heritage represented by the folk dance specific to the participating ethnic communities (10 ethnic minorities). Stimulating interethnic and intercultural dialogue in organized events. At the event, not only the members of the present communities attended, the event was open to the general public, thus getting in touch with the traditions and customs of the participating minorities.
"Koinonia camp 26th edition -" Deprivation-solidarity-community "	Pro Schola Montessori Association	Cultural / intercultural youth; Camp Conference Seminar Beneficiaries: young people, families and guests.	July 27 - August 2, 2015, in the locality of Vlăhița, Harghita County Aims / Objectives: to raise awareness and to manage the communication difficulties of adolescents and young people and the intellectual community today, to facilitate interethnic communication, to strengthen the micro-society cohesion, especially to the family, to educate young people, to support all planned programs: auxiliary programs, religious services, seminars, debates, organizing programs especially for young people, psychological counselling.	11,904 lei VAT included
Let us know our customs, traditions, mother tongue and the history of the country of	Community of the Lippovan Russians in Romania	Cultural / intercultural, educational (seminar, photo exhibition, artistic cultural show, 5 minorities) The activities brought together an	August 8 - October 4, 2015 First stage: 8-9 August 2015, at Carcaliu, Tulcea County Second Stage: 3-5 October 2015, in Pașcani,	34,000 lei with VAT included origin		audience of 500 people.	Iași County Purpose / Objectives: To contribute to the preservation, development and expression of the ethnic, linguistic and cultural identity of the national minorities present at the event, the development of intercultural dialogue, the promotion of cultural diversity and the enrichment of cultural values in Romania. Photo exhibitions "Impressions from the Danube Delta" and "Traditional Moldovan Crafts Workshop" were organized, the seminar "Ethnic Identity in the Moldovan Region" and the cultural-artistic show "Interethnic Cultural Living in the Moldovan Region".

ALTER - NATIVE 23 Short Film International Film Festival	Democratic Union of Hungarian Youth - Mureș	Directors, screenwriters from Romania and Europe	Promoting intercultural dialogue by producing a short film with the participation of directors, screenwriters from and outside the country.	14 960 lei VAT included
Mimesis Festival: Ringhi. Spil - Contemporary Art Festival - 2nd Edition	ORIGO Cultural Association	Project type: festival, plastic art exhibition Target group: the public in Cluj-Napoca, the media (local, national and international), Beneficiaries: members of the association, artists, local authorities	Cluj-Napoca, Cluj county, 19.08 - 22.08. 2015 At the 2015 edition, the key word of the Mimesis Festival - Contemporary Art Festival, was "ringlispíl", meaning "carousel". The transfigured expression contains the words "ringli", meaning "circle" or "spíl", meaning "game". The festival's motto has proposed possible answers to the participating artists in search of new and meaningful spaces and expressions as a message in the constant effort to promote through art, beyond any barrier, linguistic, ethnic or cultural, the values of cultural patience and dialogue between cultures.	25,000 lei with VAT included
Legacies. Year 1969. - Renewed show	Bekecs Dance Association	Project type: traditional dance show, Target group: public audience,	Cluj-Napoca, Cluj County, Miercurea Nirăjului, Măgherani, Crăciunești, Păsăreni, Vălenii, Eremieni, Mureș County, between 01.09 -	13,850 lei VAT included

		media (local, national), Beneficiaries: artists, local authorities	15.11.2015; The notion of culture of dance in the Carpathian basin preserves the various cycles of dance from Transylvania, from medieval dances to those of the Modern Age. In the "Legacies" show, different types of dance from Transylvania were presented in their supposed order of appearance with the help of a single song, a special emphasis being placed on the instrumental music transformations from four ethnographic territories of Central Transylvania: dances from Valea Târnavei, Transylvania Plain, Călatai Valley and Mureş Valley.
Acapella Concerts - 2015	VOCART Association	Project type: concert, Target group: public audience, media (local, national) Beneficiaries: artists, local and religious authorities	Cluj-Napoca, Cluj County, the location of the Holy Trinity Church - Piarista, on July 25, 2015.  Within the project, the Acapella Vocal Group sang sacred music in the Holy Trinity Church- Piarista in Cluj-Napoca to promote and express through the art of music, common values of tolerance and multicultural communication in communities where national minorities live	21,460 lei VAT included