
Workshop N°5 – Use of personal data for law enforcement purposes

GMT +1	3 March 2021
	Opening session – Welcoming remarks and workshop goals Marguerite Ouedraogo Bonane, Chair of the African Network of Data Protection Authorities and President of the CIL, Burkina Faso Anne Boyer-Donnard, project manager, Data Protection Unit, Council of Europe
15:05	Setting the scene Patrick Walshe (Privacy Matters) and Sylvia Appiah (Information Governance Solutions), Council of Europe lead experts
15:10	Metadata matters: a discussion on law enforcement use of communications metadata and fundamental rights Murray Hunter is a South African researcher and digital rights advocate and has worked on research and advocacy about communication surveillance through the Right2Know Campaign, and the Media Policy and Democracy Project at the University of Johannesburg.
15:25	A framework that promotes the accountable use of data by law enforcement and intelligence/security state agents Koliwe Majama, is a Zimbabwean digital rights and policy specialist who is currently working with the Association of Progressive Communications as coordinator of the African Declaration on Internet Rights and Freedom Coalition (AfDec) strengthening a human rights based approach to data protection in Africa.
15:40	Necessity, proportionality and accountability in law enforcement use of personal data Dr Justice Alfred Mavedzenge, is a Zimbabwean born constitutional lawyer and academic. He is currently managing a research project on how governments in Africa are regulating access to the digital space and the impact of such regulation on democratic and other human rights.
15:55	Presentations by the DPA, members of the Network - Open discussions between Participants Facilitated by the Council of Europe lead experts, Patrick Walshe and Sylvia Appiah
17:30	End of workshop