

The Čehovice Landscape, Prostějov district in Moravia, Regional Land Office Prostějov, Czech Republic, considering that this is a superb rehabilitation project in a previously degraded area to promote the recovery of this landscape with its biodiversity, for the benefit of the local economy and the well-being of the population;

The management of endangered traditional biotopes and the preservation of the traditional rural landscape, Finnish Association for Nature Conservation, Finland, considering that this is an exemplary regeneration of a living traditional landscape, rich in biological diversity, and implemented with the greatest respect for the environment and landscape values;

The Port aux Cerises open air leisure centre, joint committee for investigation, planning and management of the Port aux Cerises outdoor leisure centre, France, considering that this project is a fine example of the planning of a degraded landscape and of its adaptation to the changing times for the well-being and quality of life of the population;

The traditional stone culture of the Bükkalja landscape, Beehive Rock Nature Conservation and Cultural Association, Hungary, considering that this is a fine example of a landscaping project based on the promotion of geological heritage, which has enabled the recreation of a traditional landscape supported by new socio-economic forces, benefiting the local population;

The Dutch Landscape Manifesto, Foundation Landscape Manifesto, the Netherlands, considering this an exemplary project which enables the sharing of expertise, the education and mobilisation of citizens' initiatives, in order to support the sustainable development of the landscape;

The Herand Landscape Park, County Government of Hordaland, Norway, considering that this is a fine example of a citizens' initiative, deriving from the inhabitants of a rural village who took care to make use of their history and traditions in a dynamic perspective;

The landscape of Backi Monostor village, "Podunav" Backi Monostor, Serbia, considering that this is an exemplary project, promoting the mobilisation of a community to support the development of resources and traditional crafts in a large alluvial area;

"We are making our landscape", Slovenian Association of Landscape Architects, Slovenia, considering this to be an innovative and exemplary education promotion project, raising awareness amongst young people from an early age, highlighting the importance of a sustainable territorial development of the landscape.