Subject matter

This Law regulates ways and conditions of the restoration, protection, conservation and sustainable development of landscape, natural areas, plants, animals and their habitats, minerals and fossils and of other components of the nature on the area of Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Description

Landscape protection according to this law aims at the protection or improvement of:

- The characteristic natural system and its endangered, vulnerable or rare species;
- The character of the affected landscape,
- The recreational value of the landscape.

The objectives of management of the protected landscapes are:

- maintaining the harmonious interaction of nature and culture through the protection of landscape and/or seascape and the continuation of traditional land uses, building practices and social and cultural manifestations, supporting the lifestyles and economic activities which are in harmony with nature and the preservation of the social and cultural fabric of the communities concerned, maintaining the diversity of landscape and habitat, and of associated species and ecosystems; eliminating where necessary, and thereafter preventing the land uses and activities which are inappropriate in scale and/or character, providing the opportunities for public enjoyment through recreation and tourism appropriate in type and scale to the essential qualities of the areas, encouraging the scientific and educational activities which will contribute to the long term well-being of resident populations and to the development of public support for the environmental protection of such areas, and bringing the benefits to, and contributing to the welfare of, the local community through the provision of natural products (such as forest and fisheries products) and services (such as clean water or income derived from sustainable forms of tourism).
