Data Protection Day

Planned activity(ies) / Activité(s) envisagée(s) :

- To celebrate Data Protection Day this year, the Gibraltar Regulatory Authority (the “GRA”), as the Information Commissioner (the “Information Commissioner”), will publish a report on the results of a Data Protection Survey (the “Survey”). The Survey, which aims to assess public awareness about data protection, was first carried out in 2019 with a report published on Data Protection Day 2020. The Survey was re-launched in September 2024 with its report due to be published on Data Protection Day 2025. The aim of this initiative is to assess any changes in public perception over the last five years.
- The results of the Survey will help determine whether the data protection issues prioritised by the Information Commissioner, based on inbound complaints and enquiries, align with the concerns of the community or, if additional issues in other areas require attention. This insight will shape the Information Commissioner’s forward action plan and identify areas for his office to focus on.

Place / Lieux : The survey report will be published on the GRA website: <https://www.gra.gi/data-protection/privacy-awareness/data-protection-day>

Date(s) : 28 January 2025

Planned activity(ies) / Activité(s) envisagée(s) :

On the occasion of «Data Protection Day» (28th of January 2025), the Personal Data Protection Service of Georgia will host a series of notable events to commemorate the day and promote the significance of personal data protection. These events will include:

1. Opening Ceremony of the New Office Premises

The Service will inaugurate its newly restored and renovated office space within the premises of its historic building. Originally designed by the renowned late 19th and early 20th-century architect — Alexander Ozerov, the building now reflects a harmonious blend of historical restoration and modern functionality.

The new office space features specially designated areas for meetings and training sessions, which will enable the Service to implement a range of educational initiatives. One such initiative is a series of weekly awareness-raising sessions with high school students, aimed at enhancing understanding of the importance of protecting minors' personal data.

2. High School Students Awards Ceremony

The Service will host an awards ceremony for the winners of its essay contest, announced in late 2024. Over 150 high school students from Tbilisi and other regions participated in the competition. The top three participants will be formally recognized and awarded during the event.

3. Lecture by Professor Norbert Bernsdorf

The renowned Professor Norbert Bernsdorf, a former judge of the German Federal Court of Social Affairs and a member of the editorial board of the Service's bilingual scientific publication – "Journal of Personal Data Protection Law", will deliver a lecture to the employees of the Service. Professor Bernsdorf is a distinguished academic at the Philipps University of Marburg.

4. Presentation and Publication of Key Documents

The following documents will be officially presented and published on the Service's website and social media platforms:

- A special report on the implementation of the "Law of Georgia on Personal Data Protection".
- A Personal Data Protection Law Dictionary.
- A Collection of Case Studies, designed to support the practical application of personal data protection principles.

These resources will be made available on the Service's official website and social media platforms.

DZIEŃ OCHRONY DANYCH OSOBOWYCH

Planned activity(ies) / Activité(s) envisagée(s) :

The main celebration of the 19th Personal Data Protection Day in Poland will take place on January, 23 in Warsaw. It will be inaugurated by the conference “Risk assessment and personal data protection”, dedicated to discussing the concept of risk in legal terms, risk management in cyber security and risk in the area of personal data protection.

The conference is organised by the President of the Personal Data Protection Office in cooperation with the University of Warsaw and the Social Team of Experts to the President of the Personal Data Protection Office.

The conference will be held in a hybrid format with online streaming via a website.

The event will be divided into three thematic panels:

- Risk as a legal concept;
- Risk management in the area of cyber security;
- Risk in the area of data protection.

During their presentations, experts will attempt to answer the question of why risk analysis is so important and how it makes sense in the management and strategic decision-making process. They will pay particular attention to how analysis can not only help to understand potential risks, but also bring significant benefits to organisations, companies and public institutions.

A number of events have been planned to accompany the celebration of the 19th Personal Data Protection Day:

7.01.2025 Open letter of the President of the Personal Data Protection Office to the participants of the 15th edition of the nationwide educational programme “Your Data - Your Concern”, with an invitation for schools to actively participate in the celebration of the 19th

Personal Data Protection Day.

13.01.2025 Meeting with students of the Leon Kozminski Academy in the premises of the Polish SA in Warsaw, with the participation of Ms Agnieszka Grzelak, Deputy President of the Personal Data Protection Office and colleagues.

16.01.2025 Ceremony of signing an agreement between the President of the Personal Data Protection Office and the President of the Board of the Polish Legislative Association on cooperation for the promotion of the principles of personal data protection in the professional activity of legislators, in the process of law-making.

20.01.2025 Conference “Personal Data Protection Day” organised by the editorial board of the quarterly ‘ABI Expert’. The opening speech of the conference will be given by Mr Mirosław Wróblewski, President of the Personal Data Protection Office (<https://odo.abi-expert.pl/>).

24.01.2025 The lecture entitled “The process of monitoring technological progress as an element of accountability of the application of the principle of data protection by design and data protection by default” will be delivered by Mariola Więckowska, member of the Social Team of Experts (SZE) to the President of the Personal Data Protection Office. This is the second in a series of lectures entitled “Data Protection and Technology”, during which invited experts from the SZE discuss selected issues at the interface of new technologies and personal data protection. A link to the webcast will be made available on the Polish SA’s website.

28.01.2025 a webinar for parents as part of the educational programme “Your Data - Your Concern” will be hosted by Weronika Kowalik, Head of the Legislation Division in the Law and New Technologies Department of the Personal Data Protection Office. The webinar aims to make parents aware of how to wisely support children in the digital world in the area of data protection and privacy.

29.01.2025 Online conference: “Data Protection Officer Day 2025” organised by Lubasz i Wspólnicy - Kancelaria Radców Prawnych sp. k. During this event, Mr Jacek Młotkiewicz, Director of the Inspections and Breaches Department, will give a presentation on “The role of the DPO in the process of reporting breaches of personal data protection”.

30-31.01.2025 Campaign of the President of the Personal Data Protection Office in the series “The Polish SA on tour across Poland - Pomorskie Voivodeship” - meetings with residents and voivodeship and self-government authorities, devoted to the protection of personal data in the activities of local self-government units (JST).

DAN ZAŠTITE PODATAKA O LIČNOSTI

Planned activity(ies) / Activité(s) envisagée(s) :

The Commissioner for Information of Public Importance and Personal Data Protection of the Republic of Serbia will organize a conference for Data Protection Day. This year's topic will be an overview of personal data protection in the Republic of Serbia and the region, especially in the increasingly difficult-to-control online environment.

The discussion will focus on potential changes brought by upcoming amendments and supplements to the Law on Personal Data Protection in the Republic of Serbia, and the benefits of adopting the Action Plan for the Personal Data Protection Strategy 2023-2030. Special emphasis will be put on the importance of constant education of citizens and institutions in this field, as well as the importance of regional cooperation for finding ways to safeguard personal data from big tech companies that are increasingly violating the privacy of all citizens every day, taking into account that they now hold a powerful tool in their hands. During the celebration of Data Protection Day, the 10th jubilee publication "Personal Data Protection: Positions, Opinions, and Practice of the Commissioner" will be presented.
