Manual for Human Rights
Education with Children

COUNCIL OF EUROPE

CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Human rights are not solely upheld by laws – they thrive when every one of us takes action. Empowered with knowledge of their rights and those of others, children can drive long-term changes in societies and help build a vibrant human rights culture!

That's where COMPASITO comes in. Designed for educators and trainers working with children, parents, youth workers and educational advisors / assistants in children and youth centres.

It will be of great use to those interested in human rights education for children and to those seeking practical tools to discuss values and social issues with them. The activities are designed for children aged 5 to 13.

COMPASITO is published by the youth sector of the Council of Europe, which is the continent's leading human rights organisation. It comprises 46 member states, including all members of the European Union. All Council of Europe member states have signed up to the European Convention on Human Rights, a treaty designed to protect human rights, democracy and the rule of law. The European Court of Human Rights oversees the implementation of the Convention in the member states.
