PLENARY SESSION 1

Cultural Tourism – Opportunities and Trends: A Trans-national European Perspective

Cultural tourism is an important activity and ambition for many of the Cultural Routes and indeed across all European States. It is a growing market segment and is based upon the rich and diverse tangible and intangible cultural heritage that exists throughout Europe, not only in the well-known cities but in many urban and rural areas and communities. This session provides a pan-European perspective of the trends, frameworks and opportunities that exist for cultural tourism provided by some of the key organisations involved.

Speakers

PLENARY SESSION 2

Cultural Tourism – Perspectives from EPA Member States and National Tourism Authorities

Cultural tourism is now firmly part of national tourism policies and development strategies. Ministries of Culture, Ministries of Tourism along with National Tourism Boards are important allies for the Cultural Routes of Europe and are particularly able to assist with overseas marketing through an increasing array of media. This session focuses on the role of State organisations and the ways in which they can assist Cultural Routes to be important assets in their cultural tourism promotional activities.

Speakers

Levan KHARATISHVILI, Deputy Minister, Ministry of Education, Science, Culture and Sport of Georgia; Vice-Chair, Enlarged Partial Agreement on Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe

George KALAMANTIS, Head of the Directorate of International Relations and European Union, Hellenic Ministry of Culture and Sports, Greece; Representative of Greece to the Enlarged Partial Agreement on Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe

Cultural Tourism Practices and Destination Management – Perspectives from the Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe

The Cultural Routes have been active in developing cultural tourism programmes and products that not only encourage greater European and international engagement with their themes but that also seek to benefit local and regional economies. As part of cultural tourism development Routes have developed a destination management approach, founded on collaboration and partnership across involving both the public and the private sector. This session will share practices from both the Routes and the destination management organisations involved.

Speakers

Raffaella CARIA, Executive Secretary, European Route of Historical Thermal Towns, Cultural Route of the Council of Europe

Annemarie SCHMIDT, Management Assistant, TRANSROMANICA, Cultural Route of the Council of Europe

ENLARGED PARTIAL AGREEMENT ON CULTURAL ROUTES OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE (EPA)

Established in 2010, the Enlarged Partial Agreement on Cultural Routes (EPA) follows the Council of Europe's policy guidelines, decides the programme strategy and awards "Council of Europe Cultural Route" certification. It is open to member and non-member States of the Council of Europe aiming at providing political support for national, regional and local initiatives to promote European citizenship through cultural heritage and sustainable tourism. The Secretariat of the EPA is located at the European Institute of Cultural Routes in Luxembourg.
