1. Presentation of the functioning of the judicial system in France

In France, justice services are provided by two autonomous branches of the courts: ordinary courts, which have jurisdiction over civil and criminal matters, and administrative courts, which have jurisdiction over administrative law. Both of these branches are organised in a three level structure including first instance courts, courts of appeal and one Supreme Court (Cour de cassation and Conseil d'Etat, respectively).

According to 2019 data, in France there are 168 first instance courts of general jurisdiction (164 TGI (Tribunaux de grande instance)+ 4 TPI (Tribunaux de première instance)) and 1 186 first instance specialised courts.

Percentage of first instance specialised courts

The 1186 first instance specialised courts encompass 143 commercial courts, 216 labour courts, 289 rent and tenancies courts, 49 enforcement of criminal sanctions courts, 9 courts specialised in fight against terrorism, organised crime and corruption, 42 administrative courts and 438 other specialised courts. The latter category includes: 274 joint courts for rural leases; 155 juvenile courts; the Court for navigation on the Rhine; 6 maritime courts; the National asylum court; the Court of first instance for navigation on the Moselle.

Since 1 January 2019, social litigation, formerly divided between the social security courts (TASS), the incapacity courts (TCI) and the departmental social assistance commissions (CDAS), has been merged and transferred to the "Tribunaux de grande instance" (first instance courts of general jurisdiction). As a result, these specialised courts have been abolished.

As of 1 November 2019, litigation concerning military invalidity pensions will be transferred to the administrative courts, eliminating the military invalidity pension courts and the regional military invalidity pension courts which rule on appeal.

These changes explain the variation in the number of courts compared to the previous year.

2. Resources of justice and courts framework in France

• Budget allocated to the whole justice system (Q15-1):

Approved
9,859,437,605 €

Implemented:
9,773,301,202 €

This budget includes the following budgetary elements:

- Court budget
- Legal aid budget
- Public prosecution services budget
- Prison system
- Probation services
- Council of the judiciary
- Constitutional court
- Judicial management body
- State advocacy
- Enforcement services
- Notariat
- Forensic services
- Judicial protection of juveniles
- Functioning of the Ministry of Justice
- Refugees and asylum seekers service
- Immigration services
- Some police services
- Other services

The above annual public budget includes data for the whole justice system, attached to the Ministry of Justice, and includes data for the Supreme administrative court (Conseil d'Etat), the administrative courts, the Court of Justice of the Republic and the Constitutional Court. The evolution of the budget between 2018 and 2019 is mainly explained by:

- a 4% increase in the amount of the "Justice" mission;
- the integration of the portion not included in the general justice budget of appropriations contributing to the transversal "Juvenile Justice" policy (under the responsibility of the national police, the national gendarmerie, secondary public-school education, social inclusion and individual protection).

As regards judges from civil society, compulsory training schemes have been provided under the aegis of the National School for the Judiciary.

For consular judges: initial 8-day training course and 2 days of in-service training per year.

For labour judges ("conseillers prud'hommes"): 5-day initial training course (3 days e-learning and 2 days in person) and in-service training of 6 weeks per mandate (4 years) under the aegis of the Ministry of Labour.

For judges working on a temporary basis: initial training: 10 days of theoretical probationary training and 40 to 80 days of practical training in the courts; in-service training of 5 days compulsory in the first year, then 3 days per year in the following years.

For the assessors of the social centres: compulsory one-day initial training.

The number of training courses organised in 2019 is not available.

The 5-day in-service training is compulsory every year. Judges may supplement it with other training days, without any limitation other than that of continuity of service.

In France, in this cycle there are 23 396 non-judge staff (among which 19 152 females). Comparison with previous cycle reveals an increase of 2,4%.

In this cycle, the non-judge staff is broken down as follows:

- 18 891 non-judge staff whose task is to assist the judges such as registrars (among which 16 361 are women);

In the light of the data relevant for the judges, it is possible to notice that in 2019 the number of non-judge staff per 100 000 inhabitants has increased (from 34,1 in 2018 to 34,9 in 2019).

During the same period, the number of judges per 100 000 inhabitants evolves from 10,9 judges per 100 000 inhabitants in 2018 to 11,1 in 2019.

It is interesting to mention that as of 31/12/2019, 1,693 category A and B staff (including 1,408 women) were undergoing initial training at the "Ecole nationale des greffes", most of them on practical training courses in the courts. These staff will join the courts in 2020 or 2021, which will significantly increase the number of staff working in the courts and regional administrative departments.

◦ Legal aid

The total annual approved public budget to legal aid is 543 319 313 € (8,1 € per capita).

The total annual implemented public budget to legal aid is 528 101 885 € (7,9 € per capita).

The distribution of the total annual approved public budget allocated to legal aid is as follows:

	Approved	Implemented
- In criminal law cases:	NA	NA
- In other than criminal law cases:	NA	NA
◦ Annual public budget allocated to legal aid for cases brought to court:	506 716 963 €	492 100 591 €

- In criminal law cases:	NA	NA
- In other than criminal law cases:	NA	NA

In France, the law pertaining to legal aid has several components: legal aid granted to litigants before courts as well as for out of court proceedings (transactions, participatory procedures in civil matters that are not brought to court); legal aid granted for consultation out of any proceedings; legal aid covering legal representation by a lawyer granted to individuals detained in custody, individuals detained in the frame of disciplinary proceedings, or in matters of mediation and plea bargaining procedures; legal aid granted for legal consultation (Legal Advice Centres and legal access points created by Departmental Councils for Access to the Law offer court users free legal consultations by lawyers, notaries and bailiffs).

It is noteworthy that the annual public budget for cases brought to court has two components: the approved budget and the REBAJ (legal aid extra-budgetary resources) which are not voted appropriations in the strict sense. Accordingly, the 2019 approved annual public budget allocated to legal aid for cases brought to court corresponds to 423,716,957 Euro + 83,0006 Euro REBAJ = 506,716,963 Euro. The 2019 implemented annual public budget allocated to legal aid for cases brought to court corresponds to 409 100 585 Euro+ 83000006 euro REBAJ = 492 100 591 Euro.

In France, legal aid is available for :

	Criminal cases	Other than criminal cases
◦ Representation in court:	✓	✓
◦ Legal advice, ADR and other legal services:	✓	✓
◦ for fees related to enforcement of judicial decisions as fees for enforcement agents. (Q18):	✓
◦ Other costs than above. (Q19):	✓

Enforcement agents may be appointed to enforce any legal decision for a beneficiary of legal aid, either as a continuation of the proceedings or separately. Moreover, according to article 10 of the Law of 10 July 1991 on Legal Aid, legal aid may be granted on the occasion of the enforcement, on French territory, of a court decision or any other enforceable title, including if they emanate from another Member State of the European Union except for Denmark.

Article 11 of the aforementioned law provides for that legal aid "applies automatically to procedures, acts or measures for the enforcement of court decisions obtained with its benefit, unless enforcement is suspended for more than one year for a reason other than the exercise of a remedy or a decision to suspend enforcement".

Legal aid covers all the legal costs related to an instance (in case of total legal aid). More precisely, articles 40 and 40-1 of the Act of the 10th of July 1991 on legal aid provide that the beneficiary of legal aid is entitled to the assistance of a lawyer and any public or ministerial officials (bailiffs, solicitors, and notaries in particular). S/he is also exempt from the payment of advance or deposit of all costs relating to the proceedings, procedures or acts for which it has been granted (expertise, social inquiry, family mediation, etc.), with the exception of a hearing right of €13.

In criminal cases:

Accused individuals are free to choose their lawyers in the frame of legal aid system.

Victims are free to choose their lawyers in the frame of legal aid system.

◦ Court fees

Litigants do not have to pay taxes to start a proceeding in other than criminal matters.

There is an exception in certain civil matters. Indeed, there is a fee payable by the parties to the appeal proceedings where the appointment of lawyer is compulsory before the Court of appeal. The fee is paid by the lawyer applying on behalf of his/her client either by means of mobile stamps or by electronic means. It is not due by the party receiving legal aid. The amount of this fee is allocated to the compensation fund of the profession of "avoué" (FIDA) at the courts of appeal.

The amount of court fees to commence an action for 3000€ debt recovery is 0€.

In order to commence an action for 3000€ debt recovery, the simplified procedure for the recovery of small claims applies (decree no. 2016-285 of March 9, 2016). Akin to the procedure before the first instance judge, the implementation of the simplified procedure, at the request of the creditor, is free of charge.

It should be noted that the decree of December 11, 2019, which came into force on January 1, 2020, sets the use of this simplified procedure at a new ceiling of 5,000€.

3. Efficiency and quality of the judicial system

• Court performance

◦ Clearance Rate (CR) and Disposition Time (DT)

The Clearance Rate shows the capacity of a judicial system to deal with the incoming cases. A Clearance Rate of 100% and higher does not generate backlog.

The Disposition Time determines the estimated number of days necessary for a pending case to be solved in a court.

First instance cases

◦ Total other than criminal cases

The number of incoming cases in 2019 in France (2,69 per 100 inhabitants) is significantly below the EU median (7,22 per 100 inhabitants); as for the number of resolved cases, which is 2,67 per 100 inhabitants compared to the EU median of 7,27 per 100 inhabitants.

The number of pending cases at the end of 2019 (2,84 per 100 inhabitants) is the same of the EU median (2,84 per 100 inhabitants).

With a Clearance Rate calculated at 99,4% in 2019 France seems to be able to deal with its other than criminal cases.

Between 2018 and 2019, the Clearance Rate has increased for 3,1 points.

In 2019, other than criminal cases are solved in approximately 388 days, which is well above EU median of 111 days.

Analysis of the 2018 - 2019 period reveals a 1,9% increase of the Disposition Time.

◦ Civil (and commercial) litigious cases

The number of incoming cases in 2019 in France (2,09 per 100 inhabitants) is above the EU median (1,92 per 100 inhabitants). Moreover, the number of resolved cases in 2019 (2,09 per 100 inhabitants) is also above EU median (1,73 per 100 inhabitants). Finally, the number of pending cases at the end of 2019 (2,47 per 100 inhabitants) is well above the EU median (1,10 per 100 inhabitants).

With a Clearance Rate calculated at 99,7% in 2019, France seems to be able to deal with its civil and commercial litigious cases.

Between 2018 and 2019, the Clearance Rate has increased for 3,9 points.

In 2019, the civil and commercial litigious cases are solved in approximately 432 days, which is well above the EU median of 213 days.

Analysis of the 2018 - 2019 period reveals a 2,8% increase of the Disposition Time.

The number of civil and commercial litigious cases older than 2 years is not available

◦ Administrative cases

The number of incoming cases in 2019 in France (0,34 per 100 inhabitants) is above the EU median (0,25 per 100 inhabitants); as for the number of resolved cases, which is 0,33 per 100 inhabitants compared to the EU median of 0,31 per 100 inhabitants.

Moreover, the number of pending cases at the end of 2019 in France (0,26 per 100 inhabitants) is also above EU median (0,19 per 100 inhabitants).

With a Clearance Rate calculated at 96,5% in 2019, France seems to be able to deal with its administrative cases.

Between 2018 and 2019, the Clearance Rate has decreased for -1,9 points.

In 2019, the administrative cases are solved in approximately 284 days, which is the same of the EU median of 284 days.

Analysis of the 2018 - 2019 period reveals a -0,4% decrease of the Disposition Time.

In France, there are 12 255 administrative law cases older than 2 years. This is 7,1% of the total number of pending cases at the end of the year

It is noteworthy that, in contrast with previous cycle, 2019 data on administrative law cases pending for more than 2 years are expressed in net figures, excluding serial cases presenting the same legal issue for trial.

◦ Insolvency

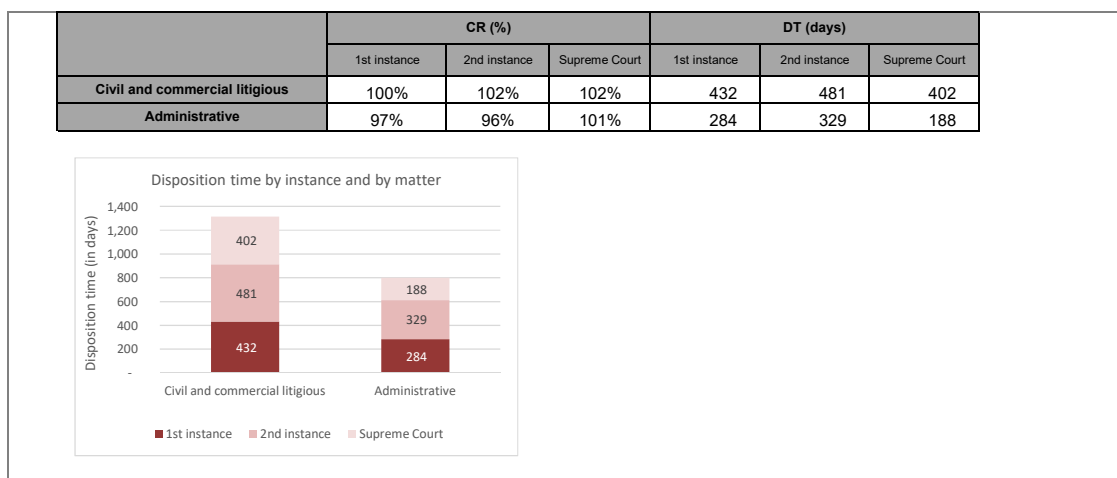

The Clearance Rate was calculated at 105,6% in 2019 for insolvency cases, France seems to be able to deal with its insolvency cases.

Between 2018 and 2019, the Clearance Rate has increased for 3,6 points.

The Disposition Time for insolvency cases cannot be calculated

Overall efficiency by instance and by case matter

Concerning civil and commercial litigious cases, courts of appeal appear to be the less efficient instance, while the Court of cassation is characterised by the lowest Disposition time among the three instances. However, the Disposition Time of all three instances is significantly above the respective EU medians (213 days at first instance, 175 days at second instance and 217 days at third instance).

As to administrative law cases, the Supreme administrative court (Conseil d'Etat) appear as the most efficient instance with a Disposition Time below the EU median of 219 days. The Disposition Time indicators of first instance courts and courts of appeal correspond exactly to the EU medians.

At all three instances, administrative law cases are solved more promptly than civil and commercial litigious cases.

•Alternative dispute resolutions

The judicial system in France provides court related mediation.

The court related mediation system in France provides mandatory court related mediation.

Before/instead of going to court

Ordered by the court, the judge, the public prosecutor or a public authority in the course of a judicial proceeding

The legal system provides for mandatory informative sessions with a mediator in the field of civil service, for employees of the territorial civil service, the Ministry of National Education and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (in certain areas: e.g. remuneration, secondment or lay-off); with regard to social disputes in certain departments (employment centres, active solidarity income, housing allowance, specific solidarity allowance).

In civil matters, Law No. 2019222 of 23 March 2019 on the 2018-2022 justice programme provides for a mandatory attempt to resort to amicable dispute resolution, which includes mediation. Indeed, Article 3 of the aforementioned law specifies that "when the claim seeks payment of a sum not exceeding a certain amount (5 000 euros) or relates to a neighbourhood dispute, the referral to court (Tribunal de grande instance) must, subject to inadmissibility, which the judge may rule ex officio, be preceded, at the choice of the parties, by an attempt at conciliation conducted by a judicial conciliator, an attempt at mediation, as defined in Article 21 of Act No. 95-125 of 8 February 1995 on the organisation of the courts and civil, criminal and administrative procedure, or an attempt at participatory procedure, except under conditions laid down by law". Some procedures necessarily begin with a mediation phase before the court. This is the case for disputes between employer and employee as well as for disputes concerning rural leases.

In family matters, the attempt at compulsory prior family mediation, provided for in Article 6 of Act No. 2016-1547 of 18 November 2016 on the modernisation of justice in the 21st century, is still being tested in 11 courts of first instance (Tribunaux de grande instance). The 3-year experiment (till 31 December 2019) applies to applications for modification of the arrangements for the exercise of parental authority or contribution to the maintenance and education of the child laid down in a judgment or an approved agreement.

- Systems for measuring and evaluating the court performance

In 2019, individual courts are not required to prepare an activity report.

However, such report exists in the field of administrative justice. The report takes stock of the human and budgetary resources granted to the court as well as activity statistics. The document is distributed annually to all heads of courts in a dematerialised manner.

A regular monitoring system of court activities is in place concerning:

- number of incoming cases
- length of proceedings (timeframes)
- number of resolved cases
- number of pending cases
- backlogs
- satisfaction of court staff
- satisfaction of users (regarding the services delivered by the courts)
- number of appeals
- appeal ratio

Civil and criminal justice: After the deployment of innovative applications, satisfaction questionnaires are sent to users in the courts (heads of courts, directors of registries, judges and registry officials) in order to improve change support actions and the implementation.

In addition, with regard to victims, the Ministry of Justice conducted a satisfaction survey in the second half of 2019 among victims of criminal offences who resort to victim support associations. The results of this survey, similar to a previous survey conducted in 2011, could be published in 2020. Likewise, the Ministry of Justice is attentive to citizens' views on the way they are received in the courts. For several years now, surveys have been conducted on the reception in the courts by a service provider pretending being a litigant. In 2018, an online survey, coupled with a face-to-face survey, was conducted in seven 1st instance courts "tribunaux de grande instance" among litigants appearing in these courts. In 2019, the satisfaction survey will be carried out in all "tribunaux de grande instance" via an online survey accessible by internet address or QR code. Finally, a national survey is also under way on the reception of litigants in the courts in the specific context of the implementation of social centres within the "tribunaux de grande instance" and the integration within these courts of the three separate courts that previously dealt with these types of litigation. The survey, carried out among court staff, aims to assess the difficulties encountered by persons presenting themselves at the reception desk and to identify any corrections that could be included in the texts.

The reply to the question encompasses replies from administrative justice and civil and criminal justice.

In France, there is a system to evaluate regularly the activity of each court.

- The reporting is more frequent than annual

Concerning civil and criminal branches, there are two objectives for evaluating courts' performance. The first lies in the need to provide the heads of courts with steering elements via monthly dashboards (Civil and Criminal), the second in the context of annual management dialogues, the dashboard covering this time a whole year. These dashboards are freely accessible so that they can be widely diffused to all stakeholders and thus facilitate comparison, the latter being the primary means of analysing performance. Administrative courts also use monthly dashboards and civil and criminal courts receive quarterly reports on steering activities via a business application.

A system to evaluate regularly the activity of each court (in terms of performance and output) exists and performance and quality indicators are defined at the court level.

- number of incoming cases
- length of proceedings (timeframes)
- number of resolved cases
- number of pending cases
- backlogs
- productivity of judges and court staff
- number of appeals
- appeal ratio
- clearance rate
- disposition time

The evaluation of the court activity is used for the later allocation of means in this court.

5. ICT and national data collection system

•The ICT tools of courts and for court users

The use of ICT in courts had been evaluated in 2 fields and 5 sub-fields within those fields in :2019 (graphics below):

	points (up to 4)
Administration and management	2.7
Case management systems	3.3
Tools of producing courts activity statistics	2.0
Communication between court and users	1.5
Possibility to submit a case by electronic means	1.7
Possibility to monitor the stages of an online judicial proceeding	1.3
Electronic communication between courts and lawyers	2.7
Videoconferencing with users	0.5

The calculation of this index for each field is an average of the values of the sub-fields included. The calculation of the sub-field depends on each question and the combination of different modalities of the answers.

The details of the calculation are given in Annex 5 - IT calculations

The result by area may be summarized in these graphics, where each field has been evaluated from 0 to 4 points.

Note; Index is modified each cycle depending on the new modalities included in the questionnaire that show more precise details on the ICT situation that can make the index drop even if there is no real change.

Concerning writing assistance tools: Cassiopée for all « Tribunaux de grande instance »
 APPI for execution of sentences services
 MINOS for police courts

As to voice recording tools, the positive reply concerns only administrative justice.

In respect of Case management systems (CMS), there are applications to manage court proceedings for both criminal and civil matters. These applications are not based on CMS but have been developed specifically for the needs of the Ministry of Justice.

Statistical data

The centralised institution responsible for collecting statistical data regarding the functioning of the civil and criminal courts is the Sub-Directorate of Statistics and Studies of the Ministry of Justice. Concerning the administrative courts, it is the General Secretariat of the Supreme Administrative Court (Conseil d'Etat) and the Office of analysis and forecasting of the Directorate of prospective and Finance of the Supreme Administrative Court (Conseil d'Etat).

This institution publishes statistics of each court on internet.

Individual courts are not required to prepare an activity report.

However, such reports exist in the field of administrative justice. The report takes stock of the human and budgetary resources granted to the court as well as activity statistics. The document is distributed annually to all heads of courts in a dematerialised manner.
