

Draft Terms of reference of the Gender Equality Commission (GEC)

Set up by the Committee of Ministers under Article 17 of the Statute of the Council of Europe and in accordance with Resolution CM/Res\(2021\)3 on intergovernmental committees and subordinate bodies, their terms of reference and working methods.

Category: Steering committee
Programme: xxx
Sub-programme: xxx

Main tasks

Under the authority of the Committee of Ministers, building on the achievements in the area of gender equality, including notably those of the Council of Europe Gender Equality Strategy 2018-2023 and in line with the Strategy for 2024-2029, the Gender Equality Commission (GEC) will steer the Council of Europe's intergovernmental work in the field of gender equality and advise the Committee of Ministers on appropriate action to be taken in its field of competence.

In particular, the GEC is instructed to:

- i. ensure follow-up to the relevant decisions taken at the 4th Summit of the Heads of State and Government of the Council of Europe (Reykjavik, 16-17 May 2023),<sup>2</sup> contribute to the implementation of the key strategic priorities relating to its specific field of expertise as identified in the Strategic Framework of the Council of Europe, and respond to the relevant key findings and challenges set out in the Secretary General's 2023 Report on the state of democracy, human rights and rule of law "An Invitation to Recommit to the Values and Standards of the Council of Europe";
- ii. oversee and support the implementation of the Council of Europe Gender Equality Strategy (2024-2029);
- iii. carry out substantive legal and policy analyses and hold peer exchanges on trends, developments and good practices in the member States, including on the basis of the findings of monitoring mechanisms;
- iv. conduct needs assessments and make proposals for the development of common policy responses - including standard-setting activities - to key challenges for member States within its field of competence;
- v. promote in the political agendas of the Council of Europe member States and beyond the need to prevent and combat all forms of violence against women, including trafficking in persons which disproportionately affects women and girls, and of domestic violence;
- vi. promote and facilitate awareness raising of Council of Europe standards in the field of gender equality and review the implementation of relevant recommendations and guidelines of the Committee of Ministers to member States, including on preventing and combating sexism, in co-operation, where appropriate, with other sectors;
- vii. follow and support relevant co-operation programmes with Council of Europe member States and beyond and, where appropriate, facilitate the dissemination of their results;
- viii. promote gender equality as a visible priority for the Organisation (internally and externally) and, to this end, support the committees and bodies of the Organisation in integrating and implementing gender mainstreaming in their activities;
- ix. engage in co-ordination and joint planning at regional and international level with the European Union, including the European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE) and the Fundamental Rights Agency (FRA), the UN, in particular UN Women, the World Bank, the OAS, the OSCE, the OECD, other intergovernmental organisations and civil society with the aim of strengthening equality and enhancing women's rights as an integral part of universal human rights; promote the visibility of the Council of Europe's standards at these levels through participation in meetings at the level of the UN Commission on the Status of Women, the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women and the Human Rights Council;
- x. orient and oversee the activities carried out by its subordinate bodies, notably the Committee of Experts on Artificial Intelligence, Equality and Discrimination (GEC/ADI-AI), jointly with CDADI, and the Committee of Experts on combating technology-facilitated violence against women and girls (PC/GEC-eVIO), jointly with CDPC;
- xi. hold an exchange of views annually in order to evaluate its activities and advise the Committee of Ministers and the Secretary General on future priorities in its sector, including possible new activities and those that might be discontinued;
- xii. take due account of the following mainstreamed perspectives in the performance of its tasks: youth, children's rights, rights of persons with disabilities, and Roma and Traveller issues;
- xiii. where relevant, contribute to building cohesive societies and to strengthening the role and meaningful participation of civil society in its work;
- xiv. in accordance with decisions CM/Del/Dec(2013)1168/10.2 of the Committee of Ministers, carry out, at regular intervals, within the limits of the available resources and bearing in mind its priorities, an examination of some or all of the conventions for which it has been given responsibility, in co-operation, where appropriate, with the relevant convention-based bodies, and report back to the Committee of Ministers;

<sup>1</sup> These terms of reference are approved for the first biennial period 2024-2025. For the second biennial period 2026-2027, they are approved on a provisional basis, subject to confirmation upon the adoption of the budget for 2026-2027.

<sup>2</sup> xx

- xv. contribute to the achievement of, and review progress towards, the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, in particular with regard to Goal 5: Gender Equality and Goal 16: Peace, Justice and Strong institutions.

Composition

• Members

Governments of member States are invited to designate one or more representatives of the highest possible rank in the field of gender equality.

The Council of Europe will bear the travel and subsistence expenses of one representative from each member State (two in the case of the State whose representative has been elected Chair).

Each member of the Committee shall have one vote. Where a government designates more than one member, only one of them is entitled to take part in the voting.

In accordance with decisions CM/Del/Dec(2013)1168/10.2 of the Committee of Ministers, in cases where there is no convention-based body including all the Parties, non-member States are invited to take part, with a right to vote, in the committee meetings pertaining to the conventions to which they are Parties.

• Participants

The following may send representatives, without the right to vote and at the charge of their corresponding administrative budgets:

- Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe;
- Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe;
- European Court of Human Rights;
- Commissioner for Human Rights of the Council of Europe;

- Conference of INGOs of the Council of Europe;
- Committees or other bodies of the Council of Europe engaged in related work, as appropriate.

The following may send representatives, without the right to vote and without defrayal of expenses:

- European Union (one or more representatives, including, as appropriate, the European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE) and European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA));
- Observer States to the Council of Europe: Canada, Holy See, Japan, Mexico, United States of America;
- other international organisations: Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE) (including ODIHR), United Nations (including UN Women and other relevant UN agencies), Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie (OIF), and the World Bank.

• Observers

The following may send representatives, without the right to vote and without defrayal of expenses:

- Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch, European Women's Lobby, WAVE (Women against Violence in Europe), European Network of Migrant Women (ENoMW), Equality Now, University Women of Europe (UWE), Eurocentralasian Lesbian Community (EL*C);
- European Network of National Human Rights Institutions (ENNHRI), European Network of Equality Bodies (Equinet), and representatives of academic, professional and business communities;
- Council of Bars and Law Societies of Europe (CCBE);
- non-member States with which the Council of Europe has a Neighbourhood Partnership, including relevant co-operation activities.

Observer status may be requested in accordance with Article 8 of Resolution CM/Res\(2021\)3 on intergovernmental committees and subordinate bodies, their terms of reference and working methods.

Working methods

The rules of procedure of the Committee are governed by Resolution CM/Res\(2021\)3 on intergovernmental committees and subordinate bodies, their terms of reference and working methods.
