Conference on

“Prevention of Corruption in respect of Parliamentarians, Judges and Prosecutors: main trends and lessons learned from GRECO Fourth Evaluation Round”

Prague, 9-10 November 2017

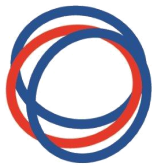

(Park Inn Hotel, Svobodova 1961/1)

Background

Under the auspices of the Czech Republic’s Chairmanship of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe, this one-and-a-half-day conference is jointly organised by the Ministry of Justice of the Czech Republic and the Group of States against Corruption of the Council of Europe (GRECO).

In addition to taking stock of the main trends and lessons learned in the prevention of corruption in respect of the Members of Parliament, judges and prosecutors, the Conference will provide an opportunity to present and discuss the main achievements and good practices of the IVth evaluation round as well as challenges in the implementation of recommendations.

The conference will bring together GRECO members as well as other experts and will provide a platform for a professional discussion. The working languages of the conference will be English, French and Czech.
