

National Platforms Network – Group of Copenhagen

ACTION PLAN 2019

The Group of Copenhagen Action Plan 2019 responds to the aims and objectives / priorities identified:

- a. Assistance to countries for the creation of new National Platforms;
- b. Support for existing National Platforms to consolidate and further improve their systems;
- c. Support for members in the detection and management of the risks of manipulations relating to national and international major sports events taking place within their jurisdictions;
- d. Development of reference documents / good practices.

The structure of the Group of Copenhagen Action Plan 2019 is the following:

- 1.0 Assistance to members
  - 1.1 Consultations
  - 1.2 Risks Assessment [see document T-MC(2019)31]
- 2.0 Reference documents / common tools
  - 2.1 Alert and Surveillance System
  - 2.2 Working Groups
    - 2.2.1 Typology [see document T-MC(2019)27rev]
    - 2.2.2 LogBook
    - 2.2.3 Performance
  - 2.3 Publications
    - 2.3.1 Concept of Manipulations of Sports Competitions [T-MC(2018)87rev]
    - 2.3.2 Typology of Manipulations of Sports Competitions [T-MC(2019)5]
    - 2.3.3 National Platforms Factsheets [T-MC(2019)3]
    - 2.3.4 National Platforms Profiles [T-MC(2019)17]
    - 2.3.5 National Platforms activity reports
- 3.0 Macolin Roadmap
  - 3.1 Risks Assessment
  - 3.2 Data Protection
- 4.0 Monitoring of sport events
  - 4.1 Cricket World Cup (30 May – 14 July, United Kingdom)
  - 4.2 FIFA Women Championship (7 June – 7 July 2019, France)
  - 4.3 Euro Hockey Nations Championship (16-25 August, Belgium)
  - 4.4 Men's Volleyball Championship (12-29 September, Belgium, France, Netherlands, Slovenia)
- 5.0 Plenary meetings
- 6.0 Communication tools
  - 6.1 Macolin Club House