European Heritage Days – Exhibition “Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe trespassing Türkiye”

Summary

“Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe crossing Türkiye” exhibition was organised in the frame of the European Heritage Days 2022 and lasted 1 week. The exhibition was organised preparing several roll-ups describing the theme, topic and countries of 8 certified Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe crossing Türkiye. The graphic design of the roll-up was sent to Edremit Municipality by the European Institute of the Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe. In order to enhance and make the dissemination of the several routes even more accessible to the Turkish visitors, the texts of the graphic design sent by the EICR was translated also in Turkish language. In order to foster among the young citizens of our community a higher sense of awareness of the Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe crossing Türkiye and their relative common cultural heritage values and places, the exhibition was held in the Youth Centre of Edremit. The exhibition lasted one week and a total of more than 70 visitors (youngsters, adults, students, CSOs, local authorities) have been reported in taking part to the event.
