— Greece and the European Social Charter —

Signatures, ratifications and accepted provisions

Greece ratified the European Social Charter on 06/06/1984 and the Additional Protocol to the European Social Charter on 18/06/1998.

It ratified the Revised Social Charter on 18 March 2016, accepting 96 of the 98 paragraphs.

It accepted the Additional Protocol providing for a system of collective complaints on 18/06/1998, but has not yet made a declaration enabling national NGOs to submit collective complaints.

The Charter in domestic law

Under Article 28(1) of the Constitution: "International conventions as of the time they are sanctioned by statute and become operative according to their respective conditions, shall be an integral part of domestic Greek law and shall prevail over any contrary provision of the law. The rules of international law and of international conventions shall be applicable to aliens only under the condition of reciprocity."

II. Reporting system³

Reports submitted by Greece

Between 1986 and 2023, Greece submitted 27 reports on the application of the 1961 Charter and 6 reports on the application of the Revised Charter.

The 5th report, submitted on 12/07/2022, concerns the accepted provisions relating to thematic group 3 "Labour Rights" (Articles 2, 4, 5, 6, 21, 22, 26, 28 and 29).

Conclusions with respect to these provisions have been published in March 2023.

The 6th report, submitted on 15/03/2023, concerns the follow-up given to the relevant decisions of the Committee in the framework of the collective complaints' procedure.

The assessments of the Committee on the follow up to decisions in complaints will be published in January 2024.

³ Detailed information on the Reporting System is available on the relevant webpage. The reports submitted by States Parties may be consulted in the relevant section.

Situations of non-conformity ⁴

Thematic Group 1 “Employment, training and equal opportunities” - Conclusions XXI-1 (2016)

According to the applicable rules, Conclusions 2020 only refer to the information submitted by the Greek Government on the follow-up given to the relevant decisions of the European Committee of Social Rights in the framework of the collective complaints procedure (see above).

For the most recent Conclusions adopted concerning the relevant Articles, see Conclusions 2016.

► Article 15§1 - Right to work - Policy of full employment

Employment policy efforts have not been adequate in combatting unemployment and promoting job creation.

► Article 15§2 – Right to work – Freely undertaken work (non-discrimination, prohibition of forced labour, other aspects)

Restrictions on employing nationals of non-EU countries to posts in the public service are excessive which constitutes a discrimination on grounds of nationality.

► Article 15§2 - Right of physically or mentally disabled persons to vocational training, rehabilitation and social resettlement - Employment of persons with disabilities

Persons with disabilities are not guaranteed effective access to the open labour market.

Thematic Group 2 « Health, social security and social protection » - Conclusions XX1-2 (2017)

According to the applicable rules, Conclusions 2021 only refer to the information submitted by the Government on the follow-up given to the relevant decisions of the European Committee of Social Rights in the framework of the collective complaints procedure (see above).

For the most recent Conclusions adopted concerning the relevant Articles, see Conclusions 2017.

► Article 12§1 – Right to social security – Existence of a social security system

- During the reference period, a significant percentage of the population was not adequately covered in respect of healthcare;
- The minimum level of unemployment benefit for beneficiaries without dependants is inadequate.

► Article 12§3 – Right to social security – Necessity to raise progressively the system of social security to a higher level

- The restrictive evolution of the social security system;
- The maintaining of a restrictive social security scheme in relation to minors engaged in special apprenticeship contracts.

► Article 12§4 of the Charter – Right to social security - Social security of persons moving between states

The right to maintenance of accruing rights is not guaranteed to nationals of all other States Parties.

► Article 14§1 - The right to benefit from social services - Promotion or provision of social services

It has not been established that the number of social services staff is adequate to users' needs.

► Article 4 of the 1988 Additional Protocol - Right of the elderly to social protection

- It has not been established that there is a procedure for helping elderly persons to make decisions;
- It has not been established that there are measures aimed at not only assessing and raising awareness of elder abuse and neglect but at eradicating these problems, or, if not, that such measures are planned.

⁴ Further information on the situations of non-conformity is available on the HUDOC database.

Thematic Group 3 “Labour rights” - Conclusions 2022

► Article 2§2 – Right to just conditions of work – Public holidays with pay

- In the private sector, work performed on a public holiday is not adequately compensated;
- It has not been established that, in the public sector, work performed on a public holiday is adequately compensated.

► Article 2§3 - Right to just conditions of work - Annual holiday with pay

- Employees may relinquish annual leave in return for increased remuneration;
- Workers who suffer from illness or injury while on holiday are not entitled to take the days lost at another time.

► Article 2§4 – Right to just conditions of work – Reduced working hours or additional holidays in dangerous or unhealthy occupations

Workers exposed to residual risks in the mining industry do not all benefit from adequate compensatory measures

► Article 2§5 – Right to just conditions of work – Weekly rest period

Domestic workers are not covered by the legislation guaranteeing a weekly rest period.

► Article 4§1 - Right to a fair remuneration - Decent remuneration

The minimum wage does not ensure a decent standard of living.

► Article 4§3 - Right to a fair remuneration - Non-discrimination between women and men with respect to remuneration

- The obligation to ensure access to effective remedies has not been complied with;
- The obligation to recognise and respect the principle of transparency of remuneration in practice is not complied with.

► Article 4§4 – Right to a fair remuneration – Reasonable notice of termination of employment

- Severance pay granted to manual workers during the reference period is inadequate;
- There is not notice period or severance pay for workers on probation.

Thematic Group 4 “Children, families, migrants” - Conclusions 2019

► Article 7§3 – Right of children and young persons to protection - Prohibition of employment of young persons subject to compulsory education

It has not been established that the full benefit of compulsory education is guaranteed in practice.

► Article 7§5 - Droit des enfants et des adolescents à la protection – Rémunération équitable

- The minimum wage of young workers is not fair;
- The apprentices’ allowances are not fair.

► Article 8§1 – Right of employed women to protection – Maternity leave

Periods of unemployment are not taken into account when calculating the qualifying periods required to be entitled to maternity benefits.

► Article 16 – Right of the family to social, legal and economic protection

- The excessive length of residence (5 years) required for nationals of other States Parties to be equally treated with nationals as regards access to family benefits;
- The inadequate protection of Roma families with respect to housing, including in terms of eviction conditions.

► Article 17§1 – Right of children and young persons to social, legal and economic protection – Assistance, education and training

The inadequate and often unsafe accommodation of unaccompanied migrant children.

► Articles 19§6 – Right of migrant workers and their families to protection and assistance – Family reunion

- Children of migrant workers between eighteen and twenty-one years of age cannot benefit from the right to family reunion;
- The requirement of the length of residence for a migrant worker before being able to exercise family reunion is excessive;
- It has not been established that the level of means and the requirement of having sufficient or suitable accommodation to house the family or certain family members are not so restrictive as to prevent any family reunion.

► Articles 19§8 – Right of migrant workers and their families to protection and assistance – Guarantees concerning deportation

A migrant worker may be considered as a threat to public order and therefore expelled if prosecuted for a crime punishable by at least three months imprisonment.

► Article 19§10 – Right of migrant workers and their families to protection and assistance - Equal treatment for the self-employed

The grounds of non-conformity under Articles 19§6 and 19§8 apply also to self-employed migrants.

► Article 31§1 – Right to housing - Adequate housing

The measures taken to improve the substandard housing conditions of Roma are insufficient.

► Article 31§2 – Right to housing - Reduction of homelessness

- It has not been established that there is adequate legal protection for persons threatened by eviction;
- It has not been established that there are sufficient procedures in place ensuring that evictions of Roma are carried out in conditions respecting the dignity of the persons concerned.

The Committee has been unable to assess compliance with the following provisions:
