

Quality Education for All – Bosnia and Herzegovina

What is the goal?

- ▶ To foster quality education for all by promoting inclusion and providing solutions to address discrimination in the education system thus contributing to an inclusive, peaceful and democratic society with engaged citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina.
- ▶ To promote the benefits of multi-ethnic and democratic schools through applying anti-discriminatory approaches based on Council of Europe standards and practices.

Who benefits from the project?

- ▶ 29 pilot schools including teachers and school management, students, parents and their communities.
- ▶ Ministries of Education on Entity and Cantonal levels.
- ▶ Citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina who will be living in a more inclusive, peaceful and democratic society.

How will the project work?

- ▶ Through targeted capacity building, awareness-raising, tailor-made school projects and joint school activities, working group meetings, peer exchanges, and grants for school-based projects.
- ▶ It builds upon the results achieved under HF Phase I (2016-2019) “Quality Education in Multi-ethnic Societies” action and supports effective implementation of the policy roadmap developed jointly by relevant ministries at state level, entity ministries of education and 10 cantonal ministries of education in April 2019.

What do we expect to achieve?

- ▶ Main actors in education promote democratic culture as a key element of quality education.
- ▶ Schools will have identified opportunities to foster quality education for all learners enriched by a democratic school culture and inclusive education for all.

How much will it cost?

- ▶ The total budget of the Action is 800 000 EUR.
- ▶ The budget allocated to the overall Horizontal Facility programme amounts to ca. 41 Million EUR (85% funded by the European Union, 15% by the Council of Europe).

About Horizontal Facility for the Western Balkans and Turkey

The “Horizontal Facility for the Western Balkans and Turkey 2019-2022” is a joint initiative of the European Union and the Council of Europe that enables the Beneficiaries to meet their reform agendas in the fields of human rights, rule of law and democracy and to comply with the European standards, including where relevant within the framework of the EU enlargement process. This three-year programme covers actions in Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Serbia, Turkey, as well as Kosovo* and it is implemented by the Council of Europe from May 2019.

This designation is without prejudice to positions on status and is in line with UNSCR 1244 and the ICJ Opinion on the Kosovo Declaration of Independence.*

The Council of Europe is the continent’s leading human rights organisation. It comprises 46 member states, including all members of the European Union. All Council of Europe member states have signed up to the European Convention on Human Rights, a treaty designed to protect human rights, democracy and the rule of law. The European Court of Human Rights oversees the implementation of the Convention in the member states.
