

INTERCULTURAL CITIES
AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL NETWORK AND
IGEN FOUNDATION PROUDLY PRESENT

Levelling the playing field: enhancing local social cohesion through intercultural sport

WEBINAR
7 DECEMBER

12.30 AWST
2.30PM EST
3.00PM ACDT
3.30PM AEDT

Recognising the vital role of Sport and Recreation staff and volunteers in building local communities, our next webinar focuses on the importance of local intercultural sport and recreation activities for creating harmonious communities.

The webinar will provide tips for:

- increasing participation from people from diverse cultural, language and faith backgrounds;
- fostering a greater appetite for managing and sharing community facilities; and
- designing intercultural programs and policies which result in positive and meaningful interactions within communities.

OUR SPEAKERS:

Register Here

IRENA GUIDIKOVA

Head of the Children's Rights and Sport Values Department
Anti-discrimination Directorate
Council of Europe

JAKE BATTIFUOCO

General Manager
Power Community Limited
Port Adelaide Football Club

At local, national and international levels, sport and recreational activities bring together people from diverse cultural, language and faith backgrounds.

Sharing interests, spaces, values and hopes for success create common goals through which intercultural conversation, understanding, local networks and friendships form.

This webinar is for volunteers and staff involved in the:

- delivery of sport and recreation programs
- development of intercultural, diversity, sport and recreation policy
- governance of sport and recreation clubs.

Register Here

For more information contact :

Lynda Ford lynda@igenfoundation.org.au

Glenda Ballantyne gballantyne@swin.edu.au

ICANN is a network of Australian cities, researchers, organisations and elected officers working to enrich multiculturalism through intercultural strategies

This webinar is supported by iGen Foundation, Swinburne University, Port Power Football Club and the City of Salisbury, South Australia.

ICANN is a national network of the Intercultural Cities Programme, Council of Europe.

