

Industry placements for teachers

Malta

DESCRIPTION

Malta's College of Arts, Science and Technology provides industry placements for teachers in order to keep them abreast with current developments. The placements are supposed to be a catalyst for the building of a community of practice and are considered to provide a holistic approach. Such programmes of CPD could make an important contribution to integrating vocational aspects into general education subjects in VET schools in order to strengthen CDC.