During the sittings in the Chamber of the European Parliament, all votes will take place in accordance with the usual procedure (electronic voting).

Specific voting cards will be fabricated for each member of the Assembly, compatible with the European Parliament's electronic voting system.

Voting cards will be given to the delegation secretaries at the meeting on Monday 22 January in Room 3 (10 to 11 am.).

If the delegation secretary could not attend the meeting, the voting cards will then be available at the entrance of the EP Chamber as from 11.30 am.

Each member shall return his or her voting card at the end of the last sitting in which he or she participates during that part-session. A ballot box will be placed at the entrance to the Chamber to collect the voting cards. Failing that, delegation secretaries are invited to collect the cards and return them to the Table Office at the end of the part-session.

❖ Elections by secret ballot (ECRH judges and other elected posts)

The Assembly will elect the Commissioner of Human Rights and judges to the European Court of Human Rights by secret ballot using paper ballots. The voting booths, electronic voting lists, ballots and ballot boxes will be placed at the Foyer next to the EP Chamber. The tellers will be appointed by political groups.

- The right to vote is reserved for members duly registered (representatives or alternates duly notified on time on PaceApps).
