ADI-INT\(2025\)15 – Exploring potential ADI-INT work on the spatial desegregation of migrants and persons with a migrant background

In a roundtable format, ADI-INT members are invited to discuss possible future work on inclusion policies and practices in the field of spatial desegregation.

Guiding questions for the roundtable:

1. What is the current situation with regard to spatial segregation of migrants in member states, regions, or cities, including challenges, policies, good practices, for addressing it to strengthen intercultural integration?
2. Should ADI-INT engage with the issue of migrant spatial segregation and, if so, what should be the main focus (e.g., limiting the scope to spatial segregation or including also related forms of socio-economic or broader exclusion)?
3. What could be the most useful contribution by ADI-INT in tackling this issue (e.g., developing guidance documents, setting standards, capacity building or other practical tools, analytical studies, collection and/or exchanges of good practices)?

ADI-INT is invited to:

- Exchanged views on the situation and policies related to the spatial desegregation of migrants, and decided to ask the Secretariat to prepare, together with an expert consultant, an outline for a study on this topic.
