

WOMEN FORGING LASTING PEACE

Annual Conference of the Council of Europe Gender Equality Commission

Lida Minasyan is a feminist advocate with more than twelve years of experience in leading women's rights programs, mobilizing resources, and promoting peace and security. She is the co-founder of Women's Agenda, an organization dedicated to uplifting women's resilience and expertise to build sustainable peace. She has worked with various local and international philanthropic organizations, building partnerships and mobilizing resources, developing training manuals on Women, Peace and Security, facilitating capacity development training and contributing to the creation of National and Local Action Plans on WPS.

Lida earned an MA in Human Rights from Central European University and an MSc in Entrepreneurship and Innovation: Creating New Ventures from Lund University. She has completed the Women in International Security for Eastern Partnership Certificate Program by the European Academy of Diplomacy and the Graduate Certificate Program in Mediation & Conflict Resolution at the Kroc School of Peace Studies.