

Compass Long-Term Training Course for Trainers on Human Rights Education with Young People in Ukraine

Overview of participants learning projects

Ira Mazurevich

Lviv region - Радехівська РДА

School of rights and Actions

The school of Rights and Actions aims to provide Human Rights Education and development of youth participation skills. It supports young people to influence decisions that affect their lives.

Participants: school students 15-18 years old, teachers, workers of the centre for social services for children, family and youth, child services

Anna Cherednichenko

Kyiv region - Немішаївський навчально-виховний комплекс

“Спеціалізована Школа I - III ступенів - Загальноосвітня Школа I - III ступенів”

Training for youth workers "Human rights culture in youth environment"

The 4-day training for youth workers from all over Ukraine builds capacity of the participants to implement and evaluate activities for and with youth using elements and approaches of human rights education. It is integrating human rights-based approaches into youth work to enhance the human rights culture in society.

Participants: Youth workers, specialists working with young people in the practical field (youth centre employees, teachers, teacher-organizers, deputies for educational work, social educators, methodologists of out-of-school educational institutions, NGO representatives and volunteer groups)

Liudmyla Kindrat

Kyiv region - Немішаївська селищна рада

Establishing dialogue and cooperation between youth workers at Nemishayevo village

The project promotes dialogue and cooperation of all stakeholders working with youth (representatives of two schools, college, library, cultural centre, children's NGO, village council, activists) through non-formal education and implementation of joint initiatives at Nemishayevo village.

Participants: People who work with young people (representatives of two schools, college, library, cultural centre, children's NGO, village council, activists).

Iryna Seleznova

Kyiv region - State Institution "All-Ukrainian Youth Centre"

School of responsible citizens

The project trains students on the basics of democratic decision-making, in order to improve their understanding of how public authorities function in Ukraine and how citizens can take part in the decision-making.

Participants: University students (1st -2nd year)

Diana Dubynska

Sumy region - Sumy Centre of Youth Leisure

Training for youth workers "Human rights culture in youth environment"

The 4-day training for youth workers from all over Ukraine is based on Human Rights Education. It aims to integrate human rights-based approaches into youth work in order to enhance the human rights culture in society.

Participants: Youth workers, specialists working with young people in the practical field (youth centre employees, teachers, teacher-organizers, deputies for educational work, social educators, methodologists of out-of-school educational institutions, NGO representatives and volunteer groups)

Olga Donets

Kyiv region - ГО "Донецький молодіжний дебатний центр"

Promoting human rights values among the youth of Donetsk and Luhansk regions

The project aims to promote the values of human rights of young people aged 14 to 18 and integrating them into the educational process by raising the human rights knowledge of teachers of Donetsk and Luhansk regions, members of the Peace Ambassadors Network. It is consisted of a four-days human rights training for teachers and series of mini-human rights training sessions for school students in schools.

Participants: 20 school teachers, members of Ambassadors of peace network from Donetsk and Luhansk region

Volodymyr Yakovenko

Poltava region - Youth agency for the advocacy of Roma culture "ARCA"

Оpre Roma! Listen to be heard!

The project envisages a cycle of training for Roma and non-Roma youth, during which they will acquire theoretical knowledge and acquire active citizenship skills.

The thematic blocks of the project will reveal the background and essence of discrimination both externally and internally, and address issues of identity, genocide and historical memory, gender equality, anti-Gypsyism, transformation of traditions in the modern world, challenges and opportunities for Roma.

Participants: Roma and non-Roma youth

Iryna Vyrtoşu

Kyiv region - Центр прав людини ZMINA

Youth for Human Rights: Promoting Values among Ukrainian Journalist Students

The project explores examples of protection of human rights with journalism students, so that they are able to present such topics in an interesting and accessible way. Another important point of the project is the networking of students from different universities, the strengthening of partnerships and the interaction of teachers who are agents of change at their universities (when the journalism is offered based on human rights values).

Participants: Journalism students from Ukrainian universities

Ilya Bovsunovskiy

Zaporizhzhya region - Ukrainian Volunteer Service

#PRoHumanRights

This project is consisted of a 4-day training for school students of 10-11 grades and teachers on the topic of Human Rights. The aim is to improve the communication between teachers and students on the basis of human rights.

Participants: School students and teachers

Tetiana Storozhko

Sumy region - Youth Agency for the Advocacy of Roma Cultura "ARCA"

Dikh na bister UA-2020/ Look and don't forget

The project will raise awareness among young people about the Roma genocide in order to increase solidarity among Roma and non-Roma representatives of civil society and to raise awareness about the xenophobia and intolerance, as well as finding possible forms and means of countering them. Actualisation of the topic of Roma genocide among young people is an important step in activation of historical preservation activities. It can also serve as a bridge to the formation of a deeper understanding of the phenomena of xenophobia and romophobia in the current conditions of escalation of manifestations of right extremism and will help in the process of finding qualitatively new forms and methods of combating them.

Participants: Roma and non-Roma youth aged 18-30 years old: activists, artists, cultural managers, students, journalists who want to learn more about the history of the Roma people and the Roma genocide during the Second World War, have a clear motivation and desire to use the knowledge acquired in the project in their further professional or community activities.

Viktorija Bezsmertna

Zhytomyr region - Громадська організація "Інститут Креативних Іновацій"

#МолодіНеПо

The project will encourage youth leaders and youth workers from small communities of Zhytomyr Oblast to formulate and implement youth policies based on an assessment of the needs of young people and promote youth participation in decision-making.

Participants: Youth and professionals working with youth in small communities of Zhytomyr region

Vladislav Grebeniuk

Khmelnyskyi region - Комунальна установа "Молодіжний центр"

School of Modern Human Rights Leader

This project is a 4-day course for students and teachers of vocational schools. It aims to provide basic knowledge of Human Rights for teams of students and teachers of vocational education.

Participants: Students and teachers of vocational education institutions

Mariya Grinova

Odessa region - Комунальний заклад вищої освіти "Одеська академія неперервної освіти Одеської обласної ради"

School for moderators of participatory initiatives of school youth "M18: We can do more!"

The project is enhancing the capacity of school student to participate on local level (school, community). The project concept is to train moderators of participatory youth initiatives, aged 14-18, that would support the implementation of democratic initiatives by students at school and community levels.

Participants: Teachers and student leaders, school management

Yuliya Lyubych

Ivano-Frankivsk region - Youth organization STAN

Cultural Leadership Academy

The Academy of Cultural Leadership will bring together multisectoral teams of cultural actors from small communities of Ukraine to improve their cultural management skills, understanding current trends and challenges in the cultural sphere and in the global world, improve leadership competencies, and build a network of emerging cultural leaders.

Participants: Culture project leaders and stakeholders from small communities (4 cities)

Valentyna Vedrovska

Lviv region - Благодійний фонд "Українська Галицька Фундація"

Galician Leadership School

The project supports improvement of participation opportunities for youth by creation of conditions for their active engagement and self-realization in 15 rural communities of Lviv region. It will consist of a training for development of competencies of persons working with youth in these communities.

Participants: Youth Workers

Stanislav Taran

Kyiv region - NGO "Development and Initiative"

Human Rights Training

The 4-day human rights training course aims to promote the Compass Manual for HRE. It will educate active and proactive youth on human rights and provide them with tools to disseminate this knowledge among peers.

Participants: Active Ukrainian youth (15-18 years)

Oksana Salivonchuk

Rivne region - Громадська організація «Центр підтримки громадських ініціатив «Чайка»

Volunteering Laboratory for Civic Development through Youth Initiatives

The training focuses on human rights, principles of non-formal education, ways of exercising the right to participate, volunteering and human rights, and developing the civic competences of young people.

Participants: People working with young people: representatives of formal education (schools, children's creativity centre, professional lyceum), nonformal education (clubs, NGOs, libraries, etc.), local authorities, youth of the Klevan community

Anna Nosak

Kyiv region - ГО "Український Центр Майбутнього"

Human rights values in school as a basis for democracy

The project will help teachers to become multipliers of human rights values in school and develop themselves interactive educational events on human rights for school students. School is one of the main places where young people form their understanding of the society, receive model to build relations with other actors in it. Thus, it's important to help them understand and practice human rights values in school life that are the basis of democratic society.

Participants: teachers

Pavlo Medyna

Volyn region - NGO youth centre "New wings"

Soft Skill. Leader camp

The project is consisted of non-formal education activities for students of higher vocational colleges on "Leadership and communication through human rights". It aims to improve student leadership skills, convey the importance of human rights in all aspects of life, and enhance students' interest in non-formal education.

Participants: Students from the educational institutions

Oksana Malchenko

Sumy region - NGO "Equal Opportunities Space"

Advocacy in Youth Work

The project provides a 6-day training for 40 young activists aged 16 - 35 who are interested in conducting advocacy campaigns at regional and local levels. The training will take place in a tent camp format, allowing the use of a larger variety of methods and forms (for example, to conduct a full-scale stimulation quest game).

Participants: Young activists who already have some experience of community activism and are motivated to make systemic changes at the level of their communities and also want to increase youth participation in their communities through advocacy campaigns

Zakharii Tkachuk

Volyn region - NGO "Youth Platform"

Mission Leader - Specialised course for Human Rights

The project adds a specialized course in the already existing program of the Volyn Youth Center, the Mission Leader. <http://mission.youthplatform.com.ua> The course will empower young people to develop their civic competence in the focus of human rights and to create their own projects, with knowledge of human rights and their protection.

Participants: Young people 14-18 years old.

Daria Andrieieva

Kharkiv region - Громадська організація «Центр Жіночі Перспективи»

Training course for trainers on consent culture

The project is consisted of a training for trainers or coaches on consent culture including development and implementation of projects dedicated to a culture of harmony in their own communities. It aims to increase the number of trainers on the culture of consent and be able to produce activities on this theme.

Participants: Young people 18-35

Iryna Yarko

Zaporizhia region - Громадська організація Спільно HUB

Youth Camp "Youth Leads"

The project is consisted of a four-day training camp for students focused on understanding human rights, the values of the Council of Europe and seeing the problems and drawing public attention to them through using art/creativity.

Participants: 20-25 active students from 2-5 class, from Zaporozhye (possibly in the region) who want to develop their leadership skills and knowledge in the field of human rights, are interested in creative art expressions.