

Restorative Justice

Whose responsibility is it?

PhDr. Andrea Matoušková
Mgr. Kateřina Šlesingerová

Management of Prisons and Probation:
New Challenges and Innovative Responses

Berlin 6 - 7 June 2023

Probation House

Support in the resocialization process by:

- strengthening desistence factors
- dealing with consequences of prisonization
- overcoming discrimination and prejudices

Písek

historical town in South Bohemia

30.000 inhabitants

unemployment rate 2,8 %

good transport connection

Our neighbours

Public hearings

Connecting with local community

 PROBAČNÍ
A MEDIÁČNÍ
SLUŽBA

Opening of the Probation House

Team

Manager

- leading of the team
- coordination of clients entries
- cooperation with other institutions
- solves disciplinary problems

Key workers

- individual work with clients
- forms individual plans
- coordination of other services

Instruktors

- supports clients in life skills (cooking, cleaning, shopping, dealing with institutions)

Night Service

Basic principles

Aim of the facility

- Support of the desistance process
- Dealing with the results of prisonization
- Support in resocialisation

Principles of work

- Individual approach
- Activisation
- Supporting strenghts and preventing risks
- Restorative approach
- Principle of normality

Rules for Clients

- Presence during night hours (curfew time)
- Cooperate with the team and actively deal with his issues
- No drugs and alcohol
- Good social behavior to others
- Take care of the house

Way to Change

- Accepting responsibility for the crime and its consequences
- Risk prevention
- Family and Relations
- Job
- Housing
- Finances
- Addictions
- Life Skills

Alone we can do so little;
together we can do so much....

Helen Keller

Thank you for your attention

PhDr. Andrea Matoušková

amatouskova@pms.justice.cz

Mgr. Kateřina Šlesingerová

kslesingerova@pms.justice.cz