

Cercul de Drepturile Omului „René Cassin”

Meeting of the Human Rights Circle "René Cassin", Faculty of Law, "Alexandru Ioan Cuza" University

Women's political rights in Romania and Europe: the end of an era of discreet presence

LL.M. Student Elena Sârghi

MARCH 8, 2025, 12 a.m.

WEBEX PLATFORM

MODERATOR: Associated Prof. Dr. Alina GENTIMIR

ABOUT EVENT

The 2025 sessions of the Rene Cassin Human Rights Circle kick off with a debate organized in the framework of the international project Together empowering women, through which professors and students from 58 universities from all continents come together in efforts to promote women's rights at local, regional and international levels.

Elena Sârghi, a master student of the Faculty of Law, "Alexandru Ioan Cuza" University, proposes a courageous topic for discussion: Women's political rights in Romania and Europe: the end of an era of discreet presence, in which she analyzes political rights of the women with the virtuosity of a refined scientific researcher, highlighting the relevance of the essential normative instruments on the topic: The European Convention on Human Rights, Protocols 1 and 13 of the European Convention on Human Rights, the Istanbul Convention, thus framing the activity also in the activities organized under the aegis of OCEAN of the Council of Europe.

We are looking forward to discuss women's contributions to the political arena.

To register for the event, please send an email to gentimir@uaic.ro