- Applications must be received by 25 June 2018 (at 23:00, EET, GMT +2).

I. BACKGROUND INFORMATION ON THE PROJECT

The overall objective is to contribute to the implementation of the Council of Europe Charter on Education for Democratic Citizenship and Human Rights Education (Recommendation Rec/CM \(2010\)7) and the Reference Framework of Competences for Democratic Culture, the priorities of the Strategic framework for European co-operation in education and training \(ET2020\) and of the provisions of the Declaration on Promoting citizenship and the common values of freedom, tolerance and non-discrimination through education adopted in 2015 in Paris.

Grounded on peer to peer learning, the objectives of the Programme are the exchange of information on and practices in the implementation of the provisions of the Charter in the countries concerned and the development and adaptation of replicable models/tools of interest of all the States party to the European Cultural Convention and beyond.

The ultimate goal of the projects will be to contribute to the sustainable development and promotion of citizenship and human rights education in these countries.

This complementary call for proposals will support the dissemination of the outputs of the EU/CoE Joint Programme ‘Human Rights and Democracy in Action’.

II. BUDGET AVAILABLE

The total available budget under this call for proposals is EUR 70.000 (seventy thousand Euros).

Two to seven projects are to be funded with an overall amount from 10 000 to 50.000 Euros per project.

Subject to availability of funds, the Council of Europe reserves the right not to award all available funds, and/or to redistribute the available funds in a different manner depending on the project proposals received and on the outcome of the award procedure.

A reserve list of eligible projects subject to budgetary feasibility will be set up. If in the course of the implementation cycle additional sources of funding are identified, the projects on the reserve list could be funded.

III. REQUIREMENTS

1. General objective

The grants will fund projects designed to contribute to building democratic and inclusive societies through helping develop a culture of democracy by promoting education for democratic citizenship and human rights education in States party to the European Cultural Convention.

This call will focus on small-scale activities related to the outputs of the projects completed in the framework of the ‘Human Rights and Democracy in Action’ programme (see Appendix II)

Project activities may include:

- translation and adaptation,

- peer review activities,
- peer learning activities,
- study visits.

2. Means of action

The activities are limited to the ones listed above and they should be linked to dissemination or further development of the outputs of the previous cycles and should contribute to the overall aim of the Democratic and Inclusive School Culture in Operation.

The organisations interested are therefore expected to make use of the existing outputs and benefit from the experience of the countries which participated in the CoE/EU Joint Programme Human Rights and Democracy in Action between 2013 and 2017 (see list of outcomes in Appendix II).

3. Implementation period

The implementation period of the Projects shall start as of 3 September 2018 (see indicative timetable under VII below) and shall not extend beyond 31 March 2019.

Reporting requirements shall be completed by 30 April 2019 at the latest by the implementing organisations.

Projects completed prior to the date of submission of the applications will be automatically excluded. As regards the selected projects, only those costs incurred after date of signature of the grant agreement will be eligible.

Each project will have a maximum duration of seven months.

Each project proposal shall be accompanied by:

- An estimated budget (See Template Budget, in Appendix III). The budget must be consistent, accurate, clear, complete and cost-effective, in the light of the activities proposed.

The implementing organisation shall be required to contribute to the project either by way of its own resources or by contribution from third parties. Co-financing may take the form of financial or human resources, in-kind contributions or income generated by the action or project.

The budgets (see below) made available to the project will not cover operating costs of national administration personnel assigned to the project, but only direct, eligible costs such as travel, hotel, special costs associated to meetings (venue, interpretation, stationery, secretariat, etc.). Exception may be made for contracting national experts to help planning and co-ordination of project activities and inasmuch as non-governmental entities (national or international) are called in to participate in the project, for expertise and research, with standard fees being accepted as part of the budgets.

7. The following types of action will not be considered:

- the balance will be paid based on actual expenditures incurred after the presentation and acceptance by the Council of Europe of the final narrative and financial reports for the Grant implementation.

8. Reporting requirements:

The implementing organisation shall provide the Council of Europe with full information on the implementation of the project. Accordingly, it shall submit a final narrative and financial report upon the completion of the Implementation Period in accordance with the provisions below:

- narrative reporting requires a full narrative report on the use made of the grant and a copy of the register of the persons present during each of the activities, including names and signatures of participants;
- financial reporting requires in particular a statement in the currency in which the Grant Agreement will be concluded (Euros or local currency), in English, stating the payments made for the implementation of the activities, certified by the responsible financial officer of the Grantee, accompanied by “appropriate original supporting documents” (see below). The Council of Europe reserves the right to ask for summary translations of invoices into English. If for legal reasons the original documents must be retained by the Grantee, certified copies must be submitted with the financial statement.

“Appropriate original supporting documents” refers to signed contracts, invoices and acceptances of work (for all transactions), payment authorisation for all transactions should also be provided in case the Grantee uses such practice, and reliable evidence of payment (authorised payment order and bank statement).

As regards round tables / conferences, presenting “appropriate original supporting documents” requires presentation of a programme indicating the title, dates, venue, and agenda of the event; the names of persons facilitating the event, a signed list of participants, the contracts with the owner of venue of the event (e.g. hotel) for the rent of premises, food and beverages of participants, invoices from the owner of the venue of the event for the above services, and a report on the results of the event (see narrative reporting above).

As regards consultancy services, presenting “appropriate original supporting documents” requires presentation of evidence of the outputs produced, contracts with experts and consultants containing a specific description of services to be carried out, invoices produced after the works have been performed and delivered (the specialities of the consultants shall correspond to the nature of activities for which they are contracted).

As regards travel fees / lodging of experts and participants, presenting “appropriate original supporting documents” requires presentation, where relevant, of contracts with a travel agency for travel fees and lodging, invoices of the travel agency indicating destinations, dates, ticket costs, and names of the travelling persons, a programme of the event indicating the names of the experts and signed lists of participants.

The above description is not comprehensive. Any doubt regarding the interpretation of the notion of “appropriate original supporting documents” should lead the Grantee to consult the Council of Europe.
