

MODERATORS

Ms. Piroska Bakos graduated from the University of Pécs with a degree in humanities. She studied in Germany as a scholarship holder and also participated in numerous television internship programs. For 13 years she was the presenter and foreign policy editor of the Hungarian Public Television news program. She acted as a spokesperson for the Hungarian Presidency of the European Union on behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. She was awarded the Golden Cross of Merit of the Republic of Hungary for her work. Between 2016 and 2020, she was the Hungarian correspondent of the German public service channel MDR (Mitteldeutscher Rundfunk) and worked also as a communication trainer and moderator of economic, diplomatic and public events. Currently she is the spokesperson and media relations lead of Mol, an international oil, gas and petrochemical company, headquartered in Budapest. Her husband is an advertising specialist, together they raise a son.

Mr. Barnabás Málnay is partner at the Budapest-based hardware and IoT focused early-stage startup investor SmartWare.tech and business development advisor at ELTE's School of Engineering. Earlier he was business developer at the pan-European digital innovation and international business development organization EIT Digital, partner at the startup advisory and investment formation White Summers Cofounder; business development director at AVEC, a startup accelerator launched by one of Hungary's then largest VC groups, the DayOne-Portfolion Group; and director of external relations and development at Kitchen Budapest, Magyar Telekom's innovation lab. He studied social and political theory at ELTE and CEU in Budapest, and at Stanford University, where he also worked as a teaching assistant and instructor in various teaching programs.

