1. Judicial organisation in Netherlands (2021 data)

In 2021, in the Netherlands there are 19 courts considered as legal entities, 16 of which are of general jurisdiction, while 3 have specialised competences.

Among the 16 legal entities of general jurisdiction, there are 11 District courts acting at first instance, 4 Courts of appeal that handle civil, criminal and tax cases and 1 Supreme court. The 3 specialised courts intervene in administrative matters (infra).

In terms of geographic locations, there are in total 43 courts of which 34 are first instance courts.

Evolution of total number of courts

Total number of courts	Geographic locations	Legal entities
		General jurisdiction	Specialised jurisdiction
2012	60
2013	40
2014	40
2015	40
2016	40
2017	40
2018	40
2019	40
2020	42	16	1
2021	43	16	3

It should be recalled that in 2013, following the implementation of the reform related to the reorganization of the judicial map, the number of district courts was reduced from 19 to 11. Moreover, this reform resulted in the closure of sub-district court locations resulting in a decrease in the number of geographic locations.

2012		19	1
2013		11	1

Distribution of first instance general jurisdiction and specialised courts

The distribution between first instance general jurisdiction courts and first instance specialised courts is 84,6% - 15,4% which is somewhat different from the distribution tendency in EU: 72,8% - 27,2%.

The specialized courts intervene in administrative matters.

Indeed, some administrative law cases (tax cases) are handled by first and second instance courts of general jurisdiction. Other administrative cases are handled by the Trade and Industry Appeals Tribunal, also known as the Administrative High Court for Trade and Industry (College van van Beroep voor het Bedrijfsleven). This is a specialized administrative court, which rules on disputes in the area of social-economic administrative law and appeals for specific laws. The tribunal hears both first and second instance cases but is categorized as a first instance court.

The Central Appeals Tribunal (Centrale Raad van Beroep) is a court mainly active in legal areas pertaining to social security and civil service. In these areas, it is also the highest judicial authority. In some cases, it is the first and sole instance.

The Administrative Jurisdiction Division of the Council of State is counted as administrative court at the highest instance, although it is a division of the Council of the Judiciary and not part of the organisational structure of the judiciary. It hears various types of appeals (e.g. members of the public / associations / commercial companies against governmental bodies, or between public authorities).

For more information, see <https://www.rechtspraak.nl/English/Judicial-system-and-legislation/Pages/Special-Tribunals.aspx>.

The other specialized jurisdictions are not legal entities (Natte kamer, Ondernemingskamer, Militaire kamer) but only chambers within the courts. There is no separate military court, but there is a military chamber in one of the district courts.

According to 2021 data, the total number of professional judges sitting in courts (all instances) in the Netherlands is 2 644, which is 1,8% more than in previous cycle.

More precisely, in the Netherlands, there are 15,10 professional judges per 100 000 inhabitants (this figure is below the EU median of 24,11 judges per 100 000 inhabitants) and about 2,89 non-judge staff per judge.

There has been a small increase compared with previous cycle when this ratio was at 2,86 non-judge staff per judge.

Total	2 644		1 052	1 592	39,8%	60,2%

In this cycle, the total number of Female professional judges (all instances) is 1 592, which represents 60,2% of the total number of judges.

The total number of judges is distributed among the different judicial instances in the following way: 1 921 are sitting in first instance courts (of which 1 198 are Female); 688 are sitting in second instance courts (of which 380 are Female) and 35 are sitting in Supreme Court (of which 14 are Female).

Compared with the EU distribution of professional judges per instance, a very similar trend is observed in 2021 in the Netherlands. At first instance, the value of the Netehrlands constitutes the EU median. Second instance judges are more numerous in the Netherlands, while last instance judges are less numerous.

As regards the methodology of presentation of data in respect of the number of judges, it should be noticed that numbers correspond to posts filled, not FTE. The total number in FTE is 2416. In fact, the total FTE for first and second instance is available for 2021, but information in FTE is not available for the rest of the categories and the detail required could not be provided. For the Supreme court, FTE and posts filled are the same.

For all cycles, court presidents are taken into consideration in the figures.

Concerning the distribution of the number of judges among the different judicial instances it should be highlighted that since 2020, a new methodology of presentation of data is used, allowing distinguishing between first and second instance for the specific group of judges who were previously all counted as first instance judges ('overig RA').

As regards the distribution male/Female, it has to be specified that female judges do not have the majority only at the Supreme court level.

Judges often work on more than one case type. There is a large overlap, but in the administrative system, only one sector can be registered. Therefore, making a distinction would not be a fair reflection of the true situation and the information is not easily available. This comment does not generally apply to the Supreme court.

It is worth noticing that the 11 judges under the category ‘Administrative’ (Supreme Court) refer to the judges in the tax chamber of the Dutch Supreme Court. With regard to administrative law, the Dutch Supreme Court only handles tax cases and some social security cases. There is no third instance court for other administrative cases in the Netherlands.

In 2021, the number of non-judge staff per 100 000 inhabitants has increased (from 42,5 in 2020 to 43,7 in 2021).

During the same period, the number of judges per 100 000 inhabitants evolved from 14,9 judges per 100 000 inhabitants in 2020 to 15,1 in 2021.

Indeed, the Council of the Judiciary is not able to make a distinction between different types of non-judge staff working in courts. The Supreme Court can make a distinction for the number of non-judge staff whose task is to assist the judges (FTE = 110), and staff in charge of different administrative tasks (FTE = 148). The first and second instance courts cannot (total FTE = 7395).

The total number of prosecutors is distributed among the different judicial instances in the following way: 873 in first instance (of which 534 are Female); and 103 are in second instance (of which 54 are Female).

As regards the distribution of the number of prosecutors among the different judicial instances, Netherlands presents some peculiarities which should be mentioned. Namely, the Dutch Supreme Court does not have public prosecutors. The office of the Procurator General and Advocates-General at the Dutch Supreme Court is separate from the Dutch public prosecution and the Ministry of Justice. They have a different function.

As regards the distribution Male/Female, it has to be specified that female prosecutors have the majority at first as well as at the higher instance.

Salaries of professional judges and prosecutors at beginning of a career and at the highest instance

According to 2021 data, the absolute gross salary of a judge at the beginning of his/her career in the Netherlands of 85 440€ is more than 50% above when compared to the EU median of 52 534€. As a ratio with the annual average salary of the country, the salary for a judge at the beginning of his/her career is 1,33 which is below the EU median of 1,91.

The salary of a judge / prosecutor 'at the beginning of career' refers to the one for a starting judge / prosecutor, after finalizing a training period of several years. During the training there is a fixed salary, lower than the salary of a fully functional judge / prosecutor.

The indicated salaries include a holiday stipend, as well as a 13th month.

In respect of public prosecutors, the numbers include a vacation stipend and a 13th month. There is no new collective labour agreement as of yet, so these numbers are the same as last year. As soon as a new agreement is reached, the salary may change retroactively.

As to the Supreme Court, the above amount is the average gross salary (11.163,63 euro per month) for a regular Supreme Court judge and includes a holiday allowance (8% of annual salary) and a so-called 13th month (8.3% of annual salary). Please refer to legislation (<https://wetten.overheid.nl/BWBR0008365/2021-07-01>) on this subject as well as the salary scheme (<https://nvvr.org/uploads/documenten/Salaristabellen-RM-juli-2021.pdf>).

- In criminal matters, legal aid cannot be granted for cases not brought to court.
- In the Netherlands there is a distinction between primary and secondary legal aid. Primary legal aid aims at solving judicial problems of citizen without necessarily going to court. There are, for example, Legal Service Counters, where people receive free legal advice on simple judicial problems. The provided figures relate to legal aid certificates. It is worth mentioning that besides legal aid certificates, the Legal Aid Board also provides stand-by duty lawyers. A subsidized lawyer visits each criminal suspect, alien or psychiatric patient who has been lawfully deprived of his liberty against his will. The bulk of such cases are criminal cases. These stand-by lawyers are part of the secondary legal aid system (and not of the primary system). However, the legal aid certificates and the assignment of stand-by duty lawyers are two different operating systems, with different payment methods. Cases (not brought to court) for which stand-by duty lawyers have been assigned are excluded, as these are not paid for with a legal aid certificate. Once a criminal case for which a stand-by duty lawyer was assigned is brought before the court, a legal aid certificate is given subsequently. Those certificates are included in Q20. Cases dealt with by Legal Service Counters are not counted.
- The number of stand-by duty lawyers assigned was over the years are as follows: 110 000 (2010); 127 000 (2012), 126 000 (2014), 108 500 (2020), and 96 500 (2021).

Many lawyers and mediators regarded the application for a legal aid certificate as burdensome and time-consuming, and the verification process as bureaucratic. Therefore, alternatives were considered to simplify the verification of applications and expense statements. The LAB introduced a High Trust method for dealing with the applications for certificates. It implies that the LAB, and lawyers and mediators work together based on transparency, trust and mutual understanding. High Trust involves greater compliance on the part of the legal profession, both as to administrative proceedings of rules, and working in accordance with the law, fixed procedures and support facilities such as Kenniswijzer (an online tool of the LAB with information about legislation, jurisprudence, and guidelines for the application of certificates). The LAB has developed specific tools for compliance assistance, such as information and instruction meetings, which are free of charge for lawyers and mediators under High Trust. The basic philosophy underlying High Trust is that trust among a larger group of people will more readily lead to positive cooperation and compliance than institutionalised distrust. In 2009, the Board started with its first High Trust pilot. Since 2011, the Board has been implementing High Trust across the country in phases. At the end of 2020, more than three quarters of the certificates are issued to lawyers and mediators who work based on the principles of High Trust. It has become easier for providers of legal aid to apply for certificates without having to send documents along with their applications. The Board grants the certificate shortly after assessing the client's eligibility for legal aid. The applications of the lawyers and mediators that work together with the Board according to High Trust are accepted automatically. This means that the client will very soon receive confirmation on whether or not the application has been granted. Verification takes place after the provider of legal aid has submitted the statement of expenses. There are two ways of verification: either verification based on a random sample, or verification on a one-on-one basis of certificates granted.

The maximum duration prescribed in law/regulation is 40 working days, 8 weeks. The maximum duration is based on a statutory law (Awb: General Administrative Law Act). However, this maximum only applies to approx. 20% of the applications. Around 80% of the applications fall under the High Trust regime, in which the application is granted automatically within 7 days (after the income and assets check with the tax authorities); in 2021 these automatically granted applications took on average 3 days. Around 20% of the applications do not fall under the High Trust regime. In 2021 it took on average 16 days to grant these applications.

4. Performance of courts in Netherlands (2021 data)

• Efficiency indicators

- Clearance Rate (CR) and Disposition Time (DT)

The Clearance Rate shows the capacity of a judicial system to deal with the incoming cases. A Clearance Rate of 100% and higher does not generate backlog.

The Disposition Time determines the estimated number of days necessary for a pending case to be solved in a court.

Clearance Rate by instance and by matter in 2021 (%)

DispositionTime by instance and by matter in 2021 (days)

At the outset, it should be mentioned that 2021 data on first and second instance civil litigious cases are partial and do not allow calculating the Clearance Rate and the Disposition Time indicators for these cases. On the one hand, data on first instance incoming and pending civil litigious cases became unavailable in 2021, only the number of resolved such cases being available. On the other hand, it is still not possible to differentiate between litigious and non-litigious civil cases at second instance. As to the Supreme court, it seems that it encountered some difficulties in 2021 in civil matters. Namely, the Clearance Rate remained below the 100% threshold, while the Disposition Time which value is considerably above the EU median, increased by 23 days since 2020.

In 2021, the total length of administrative proceedings, all instances considered together, was longer than the one of criminal proceedings, following the trend in the EU.

The analyses declined by instance show positive values for both indicators in respect of first instance administrative cases, in contrast with second and third instance administrative cases. It has been specified that the number of incoming second instance administrative law cases increased between 2020 and 2021, most probably due to the pandemic. This increase concerns especially appeals for tax cases. As to the Dutch Supreme Court, it is worth recalling here that it only handles tax cases and some social security cases. There is not third instance court for other administrative cases in the Netherlands.

In criminal matters, the Clearance Rate indicator is above the 100% threshold at all instances. As to the Disposition Time indicator, it is below the respective EU medians at first and third instance. At second instance, it remained above the EU median, but evolved positively between 2020 and 2021, decreasing by 22%.

The source concerning data on implemented budget is the annual financial report on the state expenditure. The budget for public prosecution services includes justice expenses in criminal cases, namely all kinds of cost types (e.g. wiretaps, interpreters, compensations for witnesses). The budget allocated to training of public prosecution services is not registered separately in the budget report. The public prosecution services do have budget reserved for training, but that is for the entire public prosecution services and not just for public prosecutors. Regarding the public prosecutors, the services takes part in the training institute of the Rechtspraak, and pays a yearly fee for that.

4. Pending cases on 31 Dec. ref. year	64 506	▲ 8,8%	0,37	0,87

* Please note that these figures include traffic offence cases.

The number of pending cases at the end of the year cannot equal pending cases at the start of the year + incoming cases – processed cases, because a specific type of case can only be counted in the stock when the file has been judged, not when it is pending. This concerns criminal cases where an order is given, but the case is then returned because the order cannot be executed. This specific case type return to the stock, but cannot be measured in the system the public prosecution uses. Once those cases are assessed again and stream out, they become visible in the numbers in the system.

Pending cases are cases that are yet to be judged and for which a hearing has to be planned. Cases for which the hearing has been planned, are not included in this number. The way in which pending cases are counted changed in August 2020, before that time a large number of cases were included that had already been dealt with administratively. Those cases are now excluded from the number of pending cases, which explains the difference in numbers between pending cases in January 2020 and pending cases in January 2021.

The ICT questions

The answers to the ICT questions in 2021 can be summarised to :

	Civil and/or commercial	Criminal	Administrative Assistance tools
Writing assistance tools	Yes	NA	NA
Simple dictation tools	Yes	NA	NA
Multiple speakers recording tools	Yes	NA	NA

The tool 'Schrijfhulp' ('Writing Assistance') e.g. helps people write a response to a summons. Templates for the courts are approved centrally, so if they are available, they would be available for all courts, but no specific information is available.

In some courtrooms, sound is recorded to an SD-card. This is solely to assist in reporting, it is not a product in itself. The level of automation/comperization differs betwee courts and types of courts, which makes it difficult to report on how often and how much voice-recording tools are used. Voice recognition is not used.

8. Systems for measuring and evaluating the performance of courts and public prosecution services in Netherlands (2021 data)

In the Netherlands, quality standards are determined for the judicial system at national level (e.g. quality systems for the judiciary and/or judicial quality policies). Specialised personnel within the courts and the public prosecution services is entrusted with implementation of these national level quality standards.

There are quality standards that are measured by annual statistical figures per individual court. Examples are the scores of customer satisfaction surveys, the percentage of cases judged by three instead of one judge, and case processing times (the so called 'Kengetallen gerechten'). The Team Judicial Quality (TJK, Team Juridische Kwaliteit) studies topics in a thematic manner, on a structural basis. A team of public prosecutors participates in TJQ and assesses the judicial work of colleagues in a structured and systemic way. There is often a baseline assessment, as well as a follow-up, sometimes a second follow-up. The assessment framework is adjusted if necessary. See also www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/detail?id=2018D52900&did=2018D52900. There are professional standards too, developed to show what 'good justice' entails. These standards are publically available on the website of the Judiciary. See <https://www.rechtspraak.nl/Organisatie-en-contact/Rechtspraak-in-Nederland/Rechters/Paginas/De-professionele-standaarden-van-de-rechters.aspx>.

With regard to courts there are staff members (policy officers) within the offices that coordinate the quality in that office.

In respect of public prosecution services, at the head office of the public prosecution (Parket-General), there is personnel responsible for producing, implementing, evaluating and auditing quality measures. These are the TJQ, Team Processes and Information (standard processes and procedures) and the Scientific Bureau OM (national guidelines and policy regulations).

Systems for measuring and evaluating courts' performance

A regular monitoring system of court activities is in place concerning:

Number of incoming cases	✓	Satisfaction of users (regarding the services delivered by the courts)	✓
Length of proceedings (timeframes)	✓	Costs of the judicial procedures	✗
Number of resolved cases	✓	Number of appeals	✓
Number of pending cases	✓	Appeal ratio	✗
Backlogs	✓	Clearance rate	✗
Productivity of judges and court staff	✗	Disposition time	✓
Satisfaction of court staff	✓	Other	✗

In Netherlands, there is a system to regularly evaluate the court performance based primarily on defined indicators and the reporting is more frequent than annual.

Along with monthly reports and quarterly reports, there are annual reports which are more thorough and elaborate.

Performance and quality indicators are defined for the activity of each court.

The following indicators are used:

Number of incoming cases	✗	Satisfaction of users (regarding the services delivered by the courts)	✓
Length of proceedings (timeframes)	✓	Costs of the judicial procedures	✗
Number of resolved cases	✓	Number of appeals	✗
Number of pending cases	✓	Appeal ratio	✗
Backlogs	✗	Clearance rate	✗
Productivity of judges and court staff	✗	Disposition time	✗
Satisfaction of court staff	✓	Other	✗

It should be mentioned that satisfaction is recorded, but there are no immediate consequences for courts if satisfaction is low.

The evaluation of the courts' activities is used for the later allocation of means in the courts.

However, this is not a 'hard' rule; the outcomes of the evaluation do not directly influence the allocation of resources in the next years.

A regular monitoring system of public prosecution services activities is in place concerning:

Number of incoming cases	✓	Satisfaction of users (regarding the services delivered by the public prosecution)	✗
Length of proceedings (timeframes)	✓	Costs of the judicial procedures	✗
Number of resolved cases	✓	Clearance rate	✗
Number of pending cases	✓	Disposition time	✗
Backlogs	✗	Percentage of convictions and acquittals	✗
Productivity of prosecutors and prosecution staff	✗	Other	✗
Satisfaction of prosecution staff	✗

In the Netherlands, there is a system to evaluate regularly the activity of each public prosecution service and the reporting is more frequent than annual.

Along with the monthly and quarterly reports, there are annual reports which are more thorough and elaborate.

Performance and quality indicators are defined for the activity of each public prosecution service.

The following indicators are used:

Number of incoming cases	✓	Satisfaction of users (regarding the services delivered by the public prosecutors)	✗
Length of proceedings (timeframes)	✓	Costs of the judicial procedures	✓
Number of resolved cases	✓	Clearance rate	✗
Number of pending cases	✓	Disposition time	✗
Backlogs	✗	Percentage of convictions and acquittals	✗
Productivity of prosecutors and prosecution staff	✗	Other	✗
Satisfaction of prosecution staff	✗

The evaluation of the public prosecution services' activities is used for the later allocation of means in the public prosecution services.
