

Challenges of history teaching in Europe
- International Workshop -
Belgrade
10-11 March 2022

Month of Francophonie

Organised by the Education for the 21st century and the Council of Europe Office in Belgrade, in cooperation with the Faculty of Philosophy, University of Belgrade

10th March 2022

Seminar

Venue: Ilija M. Kolarac Endowment, small room, Studentski trg 5

(Moderated by the Education for the 21st century)

14.00-14.30 Opening speech and presentation of OHTE

- Mr Tobias Flessenkemper, Council of Europe Office in Belgrade)
- Prof. Dr. Danijel Sinani, Dean of Faculty of Philosophy in Belgrade
- Prof. Dr. Marko Šuica, Faculty of Philosophy in Belgrade and a member of Scientific Advisory Council of OHTE

14.30-16.00 Challenges in history teaching today – reflections from Europe and Serbia

- Prof. Dr. Susanne Popp, University of Augsburg and President of The International Society for History Didactics
- Mr. Steven Stegers, executive director of Euroclio
- Prof. Dr. Marko Šuica, Faculty of Philosophy in Belgrade and a member of Scientific Advisory Council of OHTE

1

- Mr. Aleksandar Marinković, Institute for the Improvement of Education

16.00-16.30 Coffee break

16.30-18.00 Approaches to the sensitive and controversial issues in history teaching and classroom practice

- Mr. Jérôme Moix,
- Prof. Dr. Angelos Palikidis, Democritus University of Thrace and the expert for the Regular report OHTE
- Prof. Dr. Dubravka Stojanović, Faculty of Philosophy in Belgrade
- Mr. Aleksandar Todosijević, УДИ – Euroclio
- Mr. Miško Stanišić, Terraformings

Public event

Venue: Faculty of Philosophy in Belgrade (Students' Plato Club), Čika Ljubina 18-20

(Moderated by Council of Europe Office in Belgrade)

18.30-20.00 Public event

- Mr Tobias Flessenkemper, Council of Europe Office in Belgrade
- Ms Anamarija Viček, State Secretary, Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development, Bureau member of the OHTE Governing Board
- Mr. Jean-Arnault Dérens, Le Courrier des Balkans
- Ms. Ana Radaković, Education for the 21st century and Faculty of Philosophy in Belgrade
- Dr. Dominique Dirlewanger, University of Lausanne

11th March 2022

Seminar

Venue: Ilija M. Kolarac Endowment, small room, Studentski trg 5

(Moderated by the Education for the 21st century)

9.30–11.00 Current regional and European history projects

Learning to disagree - Education for the 21st century;
Learning history that is not yet history 1 and 2 – УДИ Euroclio
Teaching about Holocaust – Terraforming

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

11.30–12.00 Conclusions and closing remarks

- Prof. Dr. Marko Šuica, Faculty of Philosophy in Belgrade and a member of Scientific Advisory Council of OHTE
- Mr. Tobias Flessenkemper, Council of Europe Office in Belgrade
- Mr. Jean-Luc Oesch, Embassy of Switzerland in the Republic of Serbia

Farewell reception

Venue: Embassy of France in Serbia, Pariska 11

12.30-14.30 Reception hosted by H.E.Mr Pierre Cochard, ambassador of France to Serbia