On-Site Visit: Aġenzija Żgħażaġh

Introduction

This on-site visit at Aġenzija Żgħażaġh will provide participants with a direct experience of the agency's work with and for young people in Malta. The programme will showcase how youth work is implemented in practice, highlight innovative approaches, and allow for an exchange of knowledge with youth workers. Participants will engage in interactive sessions that reflect the agency's key areas of work: empowerment, inclusion, and community outreach.

Expected Outcomes

- To gain insight into the different strands of youth work being carried out in Malta.
- To understand how youth work empowers young people and supports their personal, social, and civic development.
- To explore methods of engaging vulnerable young people through youth work practice.
- To experience community and outreach approaches in youth work.
- To foster dialogue and reflection on youth policy and practice across contexts.

Target Audience

- Ministers and delegates attending the 10th Conference of Ministers Responsible for Youth.
- Maltese youth leaders and members of KNŻ.
- Young people, students, and first-time voters.
- Researchers, educators, and civil society actors interested in democratic participation.
