Partnership for Good Governance

Project: Fostering mediation in Azerbaijan

This project seeks to promote European standards in the field of justice, with a focus on promoting alternative dispute resolution. It will help to consolidate the capacity of state authorities, legal professionals, mediators, etc. with a view to harmonising the domestic legal and institutional frameworks to international good practices, and to increasing the recourse to mediation in Azerbaijan.

This project is implemented within the third Phase of the joint programme of the European Union and the Council of Europe “Partnership for Good Governance”. It builds on the results of the previous phases of the Partnership for Good Governance in the field of strengthening justice (Phase I 2015-2018 and Phase II 2019-2023).

The “Partnership for Good Governance” (PGG) is a joint initiative of the European Union and the Council of Europe for strengthening good governance in the Eastern Partnership region.

PGG provides tailor-made support to Eastern Partnership countries to bring their legislation and practice closer to European standards in the fields of human rights, rule of law and democracy. It supports, in particular, Eastern Partnership countries’ domestic reforms to strengthen justice, counter economic crime, promote equality and non-discrimination, advance women’s access to justice and combat violence against women.
