BACKGROUND

The project on "Enhancing the systems of prevention and combating corruption, money laundering and terrorist financing in Georgia" is one of the six projects which constitute the second phase of the EU/CoE Partnership for Good Governance (PGG) programme interventions to support Eastern Partnership countries¹ to counter economic crime. The project builds upon outcomes of actions implemented since 2015 to counter money laundering and terrorist financing, in addition the current project will have an added focus on combatting high-level corruption. The project has been designed to contribute to the EU 2020 targets set out in priority area "Strengthening the rule of law and anti-corruption mechanisms,"² and is aligned with the cooperation priorities identified in the EU-Georgia Action Plan, EU-Georgia Association Agenda, and Council of Europe Action Plan for Georgia 2016-2019.

NEEDS, OBJECTIVES, EXPECTED OUTCOMES AND ACTIVITIES

The overall objective of the project is to strengthen capacities of fight and prevent economic crime, in particular corruption, money laundering and terrorist financing (ML/FT) in accordance with European and other international standards. The project aims to do so by supporting the Georgian authorities to prevent corruption with respect to high-ranking officials and judiciary, and countering money laundering and financing of terrorism. Project expected results and specific activities have been set pursuant to country needs and an agreed approach in providing assistance in this field. The Project focuses on the following areas:

- Legislation: Assessment and advice through recommendations on strengthening the legislative framework;
- Prevention: advice and capacity building in the area of risk assessments and oversight;
- Enforcement: strengthening the capacities of criminal justice institutions to investigate, prosecute, and adjudicate corruption, money laundering and other types of economic crime.

In line with the above, the Project expects to achieve the following outcomes:

- Outcome 1: Effective measures on prevention of corruption; and
- Outcome 2: Comprehensive measures on prevention and detection of money laundering and terrorist financing

Assistance activities in each field include assessments, provision of expert advice, workshops, trainings, and roundtables. The activity results are documented in technical papers, handbooks, or other written output which are available on the Project website.
