Hebron, Transjordan - 9-16 June

Capacity building, Networking, Advocacy, Awareness raising

Quadrilogue representatives (with special focus on youth policy) responsible for youth policy/coordination in Jordan and the Southern Mediterranean, international organisations, academia and researchers.

Youth representatives from Diaspora groups in Europe.

National Youth Observatory of Tunisia (ONJ), European Youth Forum (EYF), other youth-led organisations from Europe, the Southern Mediterranean, and beyond.

SDG young leaders/initiatives benefited from different capacity building, advocacy and networking activities in the framework of the MEDTWIN project.

20 Diaspora youth leaders are equipped with tools to contribute to promote Global Development Education.

Recommendations to improve participation mechanisms are put forward by the stakeholders present at the MedTwin.

Young people and youth organisations developed joint actions with other quadrilogue actors across and beyond North-South and South-South cooperation.

Networking, partnership and peer-learning between youth organisations are reinforced.

SDG 4 Global Citizenship Education, SDG 5 Gender Equality; SDG 16 Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions, SDG 17 Partnerships for the Goals.
