

Complementary information from the National Broadcasting Council (KRRiT) regarding the alert of October 2018 concerning the journalist Dorota Nygren (sent by the Permanent Representative of Republic of Poland to the Council of Europe by e-mail on 12 March 2020)

“The decision of the first instance was made before the District Court (Sąd Rejonowy) for the Capital City Warsaw, VII Department of Labor and Social Insurance. The information on the Platform incorrectly stated that the trial was pending before the Warsaw Regional Court (Sąd Okręgowy).

The verdict in question is not final.

The Presiding judge has been outvoted by two lay judges. The Presiding judge dissented from the ruling.

The defendant, Polish Radio S.A., has requested a written justification of the judgment. After receiving it, the decision will be made as to whether to appeal.”
