GETTING TO STRASBOURG

Strasbourg, the host city of the Council of Europe, is the capital of the French region of Grand Est region (Alsace-Champagne-Ardenne-Lorraine), close to the border with Germany. It is accessible by air, rail or car.

By air

Strasbourg-Entzheim International Airport is just 10 km from Strasbourg town centre via the motorway.

Strasbourg can easily be reached from other nearby international airports such as Karlsruhe/Baden-Baden airport (Distance: 58 km from Strasbourg), Basel-Mulhouse airport (Distance: 130 km from Strasbourg) or Frankfurt airport (Distance: 210 km from Strasbourg).

By train

Strasbourg is connected to Paris by a high-speed train called TGV (train à grande vitesse). Paris-Strasbourg is 1.40 hrs with 16 daily return services. There are hourly train connections from Frankfurt Airport with change in Offenburg, every other hour also in Mannheim. There are also several Lufthansa shuttle buses per day, see below.

GETTING TO THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE / AGORA BUILDING OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE

From Entzheim airport

Taxis are available at the airport until 11 p.m. (the arrival time of the last flight).

Train shuttles connect the airport to Strasbourg railway station and run up to 4 times per hour, with a journey time of 9 minutes.

From Strasbourg railway station

Take tram C from outside the Railway Station, direction 'Neuhof Rodolphe Reuss', and get off at 'République' from where you can take tram E direction 'Robertsau-Boecklin' directly to the 'Droits de l'Homme' stop (you are in front of the European Court of Human Rights). Then cross the main road and walk straight ahead to the Agora Building.

From the city centre

Take tram B or C, change at 'République' and take Tram E direction 'Robertsau-Boecklin' directly to the 'Droits de l'Homme' stop (you are in front of the European Court of Human Rights). Then cross the main road and walk straight ahead to the Agora Building.

You may also take the direct bus 6 and get off at 'Droits de l'Homme' which is in front of the Agora Building.

From Frankfurt airport

From Frankfurt airport you may continue by train or Lufthansa shuttle bus to Strasbourg.

The Lufthansa shuttle bus is at Terminal 1: THE SQUAIRE WEST, near the long-distance train station. It takes 2h30-3h to travel to Strasbourg.

2 stops in Strasbourg: a) Boulevard de Metz station b) Hilton Hotel - intersection of Avenue Herrenschmidt and Rue Fritz Kieffer

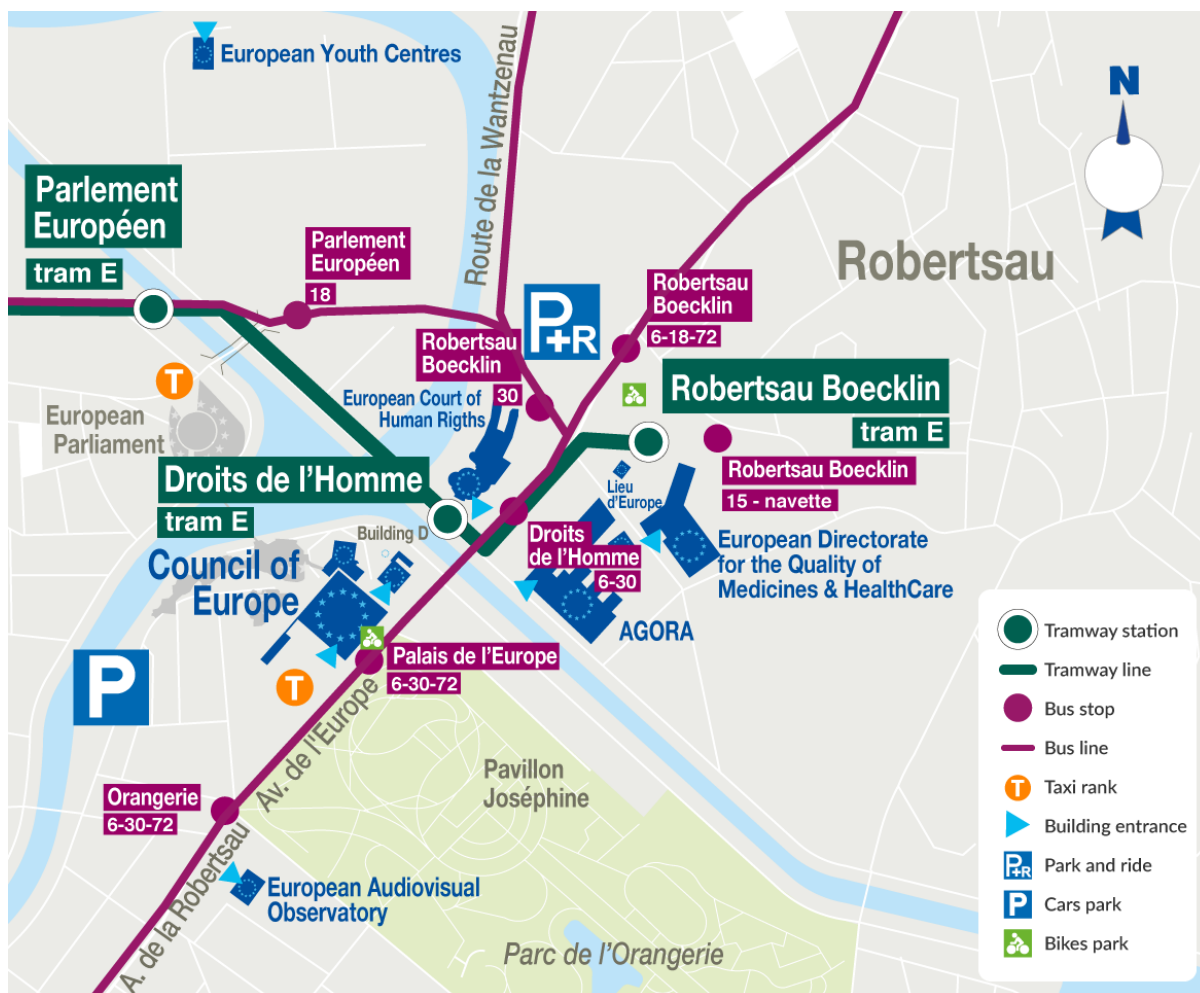

Time schedule: <http://www.lufthansa.com/de/en/Lufthansa-Express-Bus>

By taxi

There is a taxi rank at the airport, at the railway station and by the main entrance to the Council of Europe (Tel. +33 (0)3 88 36 13 13)

Le réseau Tram fonctionne tous les jours dès 4h30 et jusqu'à 0h30 (Homme de Fer).

ENTRY VISAS FOR FRANCE

Participants in Council of Europe events requiring visas are responsible for obtaining their own visa.

For holders of diplomatic passports, visa requests should be made at the Consulate at least 10 days before the date of departure. In order to obtain a visa valid for the Schengen area, requests should be made at the Consulate at least 5 working days before the date of departure. Please note that these are minimum delays; participants should apply for visas as early as possible.

Please check the website of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of France whether you need a visa.

The Council of Europe Secretariat can supply individual invitations or support letters, on request, upon presentation of a copy of the traveler's passport and travel schedule.

INDICATIVE LIST OF HOTELS IN STRASBOURG

Please note that accommodation is not provided to the participants. They should make their own hotel arrangements as soon as possible as Strasbourg can be quite busy at certain times of the year. For more information about accommodation, hotels and general information about the City of Strasbourg, please visit the Strasbourg Tourist Office at <http://www.otstrasbourg.fr>. Be aware that while public transportation between the city centre and the Council of Europe is generally good, the frequency of service is less in the evening than during the day.
