Training Course “Value of Human Rights Education”

11-15. October 2023. Brezice, Slovenia

Institute for Entrepreneurship, Tourism and Youth Brezice in cooperation with the Council of Europe’s Youth Department

The course aims to raise awareness and recognition on HRE and to develop key competences of youth workers working in regional/national youth centres, youth organisations and other stakeholders..

The objectives of the course are:

- to develop competences (knowledge, skills, attitudes and values) and knowledge of human rights education of key multipliers - youth workers, human activists.
- to explore Compass (activities, approaches and examples how to use it in practices).
- to prepare a dissemination plan for Compass and its activities.
- to stimulate and develop quality programmes for human rights education.
- to increase quality in facilitating activities of HRE at local, regional and national level.
- to promote priorities, good practices and values of Council of Europe.
