

LAWYERS AND EXPERTS FACING THE NEW CHALLENGES OF JUSTICE: INTERNATIONALIZATION, DEMATERIALIZATION, e-EVIDENCE AND PREDICTIVE JUSTICE

The European Expertise and Expert Institute (EEEI) has been dealing with issues related to judicial expertise for over 12 years. Since its constitution in 2006, it has been working on enhancing the quality of expert evidence in the EU Member States and on harmonising the rules and practices of expertise throughout Europe.

11.00h-11.30h WELCOME COFFEE

11.30h-11.50h INAUGURATION TABLE

Yvonne Pavía, Member of the Board of ICAB.

Béatrice Deshayes and Etienne Claes, Co-presidents of the EEEI.

Alexandra Perquin, Representative of the Paris Bar, Member of the Council of the Order and Secretary of the Digital Commission.

Pierre-Ann Laugery, President of the Bar of Hauts de Seine.

Dr. Vaclav Vlk, Member of the International Relations Committee of the Czech Bar Association.

Rafael Orellana, President of the Catalan Association of Judicial and Forensic Experts, Vice-President in charge of communication, member of the Bureau and Executive Committee of EEEI.

11.50-12.30 LAWYERS AND EXPERTS FACING DEMATERIALIZATION OF JUSTICE

Lawyers and experts facing the dematerialization of Justice. The example of France. European projects.

Keynote speakers:

Luc Ferrand, Deputy Director of the Evidence-2-e-CODEX Project, French Ministry of Justice.

Conference moderator:

Yvonne Pavía, Member of the ICAB Board of Directors.

12.30h -13.00h E-JUSTICE: LE PORTAIL EUROPEEN SUR LA JUSTICE : AVOCATS ET EXPERTS SUR DES LISTES EUROPEENNES

Keynote speaker :

Alain Pilette, Deputy Director at the Council of the European Union, Chair of the e-Justice Working Group.

Presentation by Jean Raymond Lemaire, Honorary President EEEI.

13.00h-13.50H INTELLIGENCE ARTIFICIELLE DANS LE SECTEUR JURIDIQUE

Artificial intelligence applied to the work of lawyers and experts.

Keynote speaker:

Yannick Meneceur, Secretary of the SATURN Centre for judicial time management.

Artificial intelligence, big data and e-evidence in the legal sector: opportunity or threat?

Keynote speaker:

José María Fernández Comas, Consultant of Wolters Kluwer Spain. Director of www.derechopractico.es.

Conference moderator:

Rafael Orellana, President of the Catalan Association of Judicial and Forensic Experts, Vice-President in charge of communication, member of the Bureau and Executive Committee of EEEI.

There will be a simultaneous translation service.

Prices Subscriptions:

Collegiate ICAB	20,00 €
Members of the Catalan Association of Expertise	20,00 €
Member of EEEI (European Expertise & Expert Institute)	20,00 €
General	30,00 €

Inscriptions to: www.icab.cat