Main objective and objectives	Project objective: the Project aims to enhance the protection of refugees, asylum seekers, and migrants in the Republic of Moldova by improving the capacities of the Moldovan authorities. This is to be done by a) developing more effective and human rights-based migration, asylum, and reception systems in the long term and b) provision of tailored support to the country in addressing the needs of refugees, asylum seekers, and migrants.
Expected results	Refugees, asylum seekers, and migrants in the Republic of Moldova are better protected in line with European and international human rights standards: 1. National authorities implement the legislative and policy framework on human rights protection of refugees, asylum seekers, and migrants in line with European and international standards. 2. Migration authorities, legal professionals, the judiciary, civil servants, and other professionals (police, border police officers, People's Advocate Office) apply a human rights-based approach to advance the protection of refugees, asylum seekers, and migrants. 3. National authorities, psychologists, education professionals and civil society organisations facilitate access to support services, psychological aid, and integration programmes for refugees, asylum seekers, and migrants.

Key activities	Analysis of national legal framework and judicial practice; workshops for practitioners in migration and asylum; provision of IT equipment and technical assistance; grant programmes; trainings and mentoring on trauma-informed approach to services.
