

Questions and Answers Document

Reference: Purchase of consultancy services in the field of anti-corruption compliance in the private sector, business integrity and protection of the rights of entrepreneurs, in the framework of the project “Promoting Transparency and Action against Economic Crime in Central Asia (CA TAEC)”.

N° BH4765-ECCD-CBP-2022

Received questions	Answers
1. Should a fee be indicated for each of 5 deliverables mentioned in the Act of Engagement?	One single fee should be indicated for all 5 deliverables mentioned in the Act of Engagement.
2. If an expert has no competence to deliver a certain deliverable, should a fee be indicated for such deliverable anyway?	All 5 deliverables refer to the same LOT “Consultancy services in the field of business integrity, anti-corruption compliance tools for the private sector and protection of the rights of entrepreneurs for countries in Central Asia, in line with international standards and good practices”. Therefore, one single fee should be included for all deliverables. In case the expert does not have expertise on a specific deliverable this will be communicated to the CoE Secretariat if the expert is selected and approached with a request for consultancy services.
3. Should a fee be indicated as a daily rate or a total remuneration value for a particular deliverable?	The fee should be indicated as a daily rate.