

Question:

Am I to understand that the maximum payment per day is 250 euros, from which taxes would be deducted?

Answer:

Thank you for your interest in the Tender Procedure and your question. Please note, that maximum payment 250 E is a total fee including all taxes. The Council of Europe will not deduct any amount from honoraria and will fully transfer it to the Consultant. Consultants are obliged to pay taxes themselves as it is required in their country of fiscal residence. For those cases when the Consultant is a VAT payer, please check the relevant clauses in the Act of Engagement.

Please note that 250 E is a daily fee. Depending on the volume and complexity of the assignment, the consultant is offered several days of work and accordingly fee, so that the total honoraria is equivalent to the consultant's work and time spent. The number of days is defined based on negotiation between the Project staff and the consultant to ensure that the consultant receives the proper remuneration.
