

To the Secretary of the Current Affairs Committee, Ms. Sedef Cankocak

Council of Europe-Council of Local nad Regional Authorities

Letter of Candidature

Dear members,

With 15 years of experience in local and regional politics, hereby I declare my candidacy for the position of Vice-President of the Current Affairs Committee.

My studies and qualifications opened me the way to awareness to the European agenda. As an officer in External and Foreign Affairs of the Pilsen Region, I worked in Brussels and participated in the process of EU enlargement in 2004. I have been struggling to establish the regional representation of the Pilsen Region in Brussels which is still working. I have been also involved in many cross border and international projects at the regional level and twice nominated as a candidate for last two elections to European Parliament.

My interests are also social affairs, especially as the Head of Social Care Center, transition of social care in one of the largest social care centers in the Czech Republic and regarding to my education, I was always involved in the matters of education, schools, access to higher education, etc.

Last years I am intensively occupied with the matters of environment, climate crisis and agriculture.

As a candidate I offer my skills, experience and work to fulfill the role of Vice-President of the Current Affairs Committee so needed in nowadays pandemic time.

Best Regards
