

DETAILED PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Project title	Reinforcing National Execution of the European Court's judgments by Georgia
Country/region	Georgia
Budget	EUR 850,000
Donor
Duration	01.01.2024 – 31.12.2025
Partners and beneficiaries	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Parliament of Georgia</li> <li>• Ministry of Justice</li> <li>• National Courts</li> <li>• Office of the Prosecutor' General</li> <li>• Special Investigative Service</li> <li>• Georgian Bar</li> <li>• Public Defender's Office</li> <li>• NGOs</li> </ul>
Main objective and objectives	Main Objective: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enhancing the capacity of existing mechanisms (domestic remedies) for execution of the ECtHR judgments.</li> </ul> Specific objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Improving the capacity of national execution stakeholders (national courts and Special Investigative Service) in re-opening of proceedings following a judgment/decision of the ECtHR .</li> <li>• Strengthening the role of the Parliament of Georgia in carrying out its oversight functions over the execution of ECtHR judgments and harmonization of national legislation with European standards.</li> <li>• Enhancing the role of National Human Rights Institution and NGOs in the execution of the European Court's judgments.</li> <li>• Improving the legal framework, and enhancing the national coordination for the full execution of Court's judgments at domestic level.</li> </ul>

Expected results	By strengthening the domestic remedies for the implementation of the European Court's judgments, the Project aims to foster a legal environment where individuals can seek justice and receive redress for human rights violations at national level.
Key activities	The Project will employ a diverse range of methodologies and take initiatives to achieve its objectives effectively. By employing, inter alia, the following activities, namely, working groups/expert meetings, seminars/round tables/conferences, training sessions the project will create synergies among stakeholders, promote knowledge-sharing and facilitate the implementation of targeted interventions aimed at strengthening domestic remedies in Georgia.