Documentary "THERESIENSTADT - Danish Children in Nazi Captivity", produced by DIIS. A film about six Danish Jewish children deported to Theresienstadt during World War II. It is based on interviews with survivors, and their eye witness accounts are supplemented by archival material and historical footage. It is a film about the Danish prisoners in Theresienstadt and the German occupation of Denmark, about World War 2 and the Holocaust - all through the eyes of six children. The film is produced for educational purposes and made available for teachers and students across Denmark - and abroad. The film is two hours long and is divided into chapters.
