

Per Arne Håkansson, Sweden

Born in 1951

Education

Ph D in sociology, University of Lund, 1987

Thesis: The social situation of homosexuals in a heterosexual society (in Swedish)

Professional activity

Since 1996 researcher at The National Board of Health and Welfare, mainly in the fields of child protection and violence against women. His work has included evaluating treatment programs for perpetrators of intimate partner violence and shelters for victims of honour related violence. He is currently working with a governmental commission to identify treatment methods for perpetrators that have shown promising results.

Relevant publications

Treatment of men who use violence in intimate relations – an evaluation (in Swedish), The National Board of Health and Welfare, 2010

A follow-up study of shelters for persons threatened by honour related violence (in Swedish), The National Board of Health and Welfare, 2007