

EUROPEAN DAY

ON THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AGAINST SEXUAL EXPLOITATION AND SEXUAL ABUSE (18 NOVEMBER)

SOCIAL MEDIA KIT

SUMMARY

The European Day on the Protection of Children against Sexual Exploitation and Sexual Abuse is on Monday, 18 November 2019. This year's theme is "Empowering children to stop sexual violence".

Children are all too often side-lined from matters that concern them. Children should be given the means, space, opportunity and support to be involved in the design and implementation of preventive measures, policies, programmes or other initiatives.

All types of child participation activities are welcome on the occasion of the European Day in order to encourage interaction, in particular between peers, between children and policy makers, educators, parents, child protection professionals.

With your help, we hope to engage global communities and work together to #END Child Sex Abuse.

Spread the word on social media!
