

Response from the Swedish authorities to the alert regarding Mahmoud Abbas

“Safeguarding the rule of law is high on the Swedish Government’s agenda. An independent judiciary and a well-functioning and trustworthy justice system are essential foundations of a democratic society. The handling of this case is now a responsibility of the independent law enforcement authorities. A preliminary investigation has been initiated regarding unlawful threat.”