The T-CY decided:

Agenda item 1: Opening of the meeting and adoption of the agenda

- To adopt the agenda;
- To welcome the new voluntary contribution to the T-CY and the project Cybercrime@Octopus by the United Kingdom;

Agenda item 2: State of ratifications and accessions: tour de table

- To welcome the recent accession to the Convention and/or its Protocol by Ghana and San Marino;
- To welcome the steps underway and progress made towards ratification or accession by Benin, Colombia, Ireland, Mexico, Nigeria and Tunisia, and the interest in the Convention by ad-hoc observers from Algeria, Jordan and Lebanon;
- To note the progress made worldwide in terms of legislation on cybercrime and electronic evidence based on the provisions of the Budapest Convention on Cybercrime;

Agenda item 3: T-CY revised Rules of Procedure*

- To adopt the revised Rules of Procedure T-CY (2013)25rev;

Agenda item 4: Request for Observer Status*

- To grant observer status to the South-East European Law Enforcement Center (SELEC);

Agenda item 5: Proposal for a Guidance Note on Election Interference

- To adopt the Guidance Note on Election Interference and welcome that a workshop will be dedicated to this topic at the forthcoming Octopus Conference;
- To take note of the presentation on election interference made by Ukraine;

Agenda item 6: Extension of the terms of reference for the preparation of the 2nd Additional Protocol to the Budapest Convention

- To welcome the progress made in the preparation of the 2nd Additional Protocol noting that it addresses complex challenges to ensure an effective criminal justice response with human rights and rule of law safeguards;
- To extend the terms of reference for the preparation of the 2nd Additional Protocol to the Budapest Convention by one year to December 2020;

Agenda item 7: Gender equality and cyberviolence

- To take note of the recent Recommendation CM/Rec\(2019\)1 on Preventing and Combating Sexism;
- To take note of progress made by the Secretariat in the development of a web resource on cyberviolence in line with the recommendation of the T-CY in relation to the Mapping Study on Cyberviolence, and to encourage Parties and Observers to the T-CY to provide additional information for this resource by 15 September 2019;

Agenda item 8: Update on key developments by Parties and Observers

- To note with interest information provided on cybercrime policies, legislative developments, training or major cases by Parties to the Budapest Convention: Argentina, Australia, Chile, Costa Rica, Czech Republic, Dominican Republic, France, Norway, Portugal, Serbia, Slovenia, Sri Lanka, Tonga and Ukraine;
- To welcome the information provided by:
 - Commonwealth Secretariat;
 - European Commission;

3 Appendix

3.1 Agenda

Plenary T-CY 21 Monday, 8 July 2019, 9h30 – 18h00
1.	Opening of the 21 th Plenary and adoption of the agenda
2.	State of ratifications and accessions: tour de table Signatory States and States invited to accede are invited to provide an update on the state of ratification or accession to the Budapest Convention.
3.	T-CY revised Rules of Procedure* T-CY members are invited to consider the draft Rules of Procedure (T-CY(2013)25) as revised by the Bureau in view of adoption.
4.	Request for T-CY Observer Status* T-CY members are invited to consider inviting the SELEC (South-East European Law Enforcement Center). In February 2019, the Director General of SELEC requested observer status in the T-CY. The T-CY Bureau considers that observer status by SELEC facilitates further capacity building (in cooperation with C-PROC) and/or outreach in line with the Budapest Convention and its Protocol(s) in its member States and partner States and organisations.
5.	Proposal for a Guidance Note on Election Interference* T-CY members are invited to consider the draft Guidance Note on election interference (T-CY(2019)4) prepared by the T-CY Bureau in view of adoption.
6.	Proposal to extend the terms of reference for the preparation of the 2 nd Additional Protocol to the Budapest Convention T-CY members are invited to consider extending the terms of reference for the preparation of the 2nd Additional Protocol by one year, that is, to December 2020.
7.	Gender equality and cyberviolence Participants are invited to engage in an exchange of views with gender equality experts of the Council of Europe on the recent Recommendation CM/Rec(2019)1 on Preventing and Combating Sexism .
8.	Update on key developments by Parties and Observers Participants are invited to present information on major legislative developments, cases, important events, and training. Given that only limited time will be available during this one-day plenary, delegations are invited to submit written updates by 3 July 2019 which are to be published as part of the Plenary documentation.
9.	Next meeting of the T-CY* T-CY members are invited to decide on the proposal to hold T-CY 22 on 18 November, prior to the meeting of the Protocol Drafting Plenary on 19 and the morning of 20 November and the Octopus Conference from 20 November (afternoon) to 22 November 2019. This proposal is subject to the availability of funding.
