

22 December 2025

FLASH SURVEY- 1

This Flash Survey is sent to the States Parties and signatory countries of the Committee of the Parties to the Council of Europe Convention against Trafficking in Human Organs (hereinafter, the Santiago de Compostela Convention), following their agreement during the 7th Plenary meeting held on 16-17 October 2025.

COUNTRY:
NAME:
JOB TITLE:
EMAIL ADDRESS:

QUESTION	YES	NO
----------	-----	----

- Is there, in your country, a legal requirement, i.e. supported by law, to report a suspicion that an illicit transplantation, involving either donor or recipient, has taken place concerning a person

a. Normally resident in your country, and

i. Returning to your country following the transplantation
ii. Having gone abroad for transplantation, or
b. Normally resident outside your country and currently in your country for the purpose of a suspected illicit transplantation

- The requirement to report in all cases of having a reasonable suspicion or actual knowledge of an illicit transplantation is...

a. ...mandatory.
b. ...subject to the professional confidentiality guidance.
c. There is no requirement.

- Which healthcare professionals, if any, are subject to the mandatory requirement to report suspicions or actual knowledge of an illicit transplantation?

a. Please list
b. Which healthcare professionals are not included in the mandatory reporting requirement (e.g. a patient's general practitioner, public health practitioners, etc.)

--

• Where there is no legal requirement in your country to report a suspicion that an illicit transplantation, involving either donor or recipient, has taken place under circumstances outlined in question 1, a) and b): • is there any other mandatory requirement, i.e. healthcare professional rules or other policy measures, in place with this requirement ? If Yes, please provide details.
---	--	--