B. EXPECTED DELIVERABLES

Background of the Project

The European Union (EU) and the Council of Europe (CoE) are currently implementing Joint Project on "Supporting the criminal justice reforms – tackling criminal aspects of the judicial reform" The Project is being implemented under the EU-CoE Partnership for Good Governance (PGG) and will last until 31 August 2022.

Specific objectives of the project are:

- Improvements in criminal procedure legislation and practice.
- Improvement of analytical and methodological capacities of the justice sector stakeholders to assess the criminal justice's performance and develop evidence-based criminal policy.
- Assistance with international cooperation in criminal matters.

Furthermore, the project aims to support the Georgian stakeholders in reforming the criminal procedure mechanisms and strengthen the capacity of national courts to effectively exercise judicial control over the application of coercive measures by the prosecution services and law enforcement agencies; support Georgian stakeholders to establish most effective system of preventive measures in line with the best European practices.

In this context, the CoE is looking for maximum number of 46 (forty six) Providers/consultants to provide legislative review of criminal procedural legislation and deliver capacity building activities for legal professionals (judges, prosecutors, and lawyers) on ECHR and case-law of the ECtHR with focus on criminal justice and criminal procedure, fight against ill-treatment and impunity, deprivation of liberty, pre-trial detention, alternative measure to detention; investigation of serious human rights violations.

For legislative review consultants are expected to conduct analysis of legal acts, to provide legal expertise on specific issues and proposed changes, conduct comparative legal analysis of criminal justice systems and legislation of the European countries, provide written recommendations, develop respective thematic guidebooks, participate in consultation meetings with national authorities and/ or make presentations during working group meetings, workshops, roundtables, or conference. In all assignments, post activity reports as a rule the consultant(s) shall elaborate on gender dimension and possible impact of proposed changes on gender equality.

For capacity development consultants are expected to assess the training needs of specific target group or training institution. All training shall be interactive and based on adult learning techniques and open education and shall be implemented using the HELP methodology and resources so it is expected from the consultants to be familiar with them. The capacity building activities shall meet the CoE standards in terms of quality shall be planned on the basis of the ECHR and the ECtHR case law including in respect of Georgia. Furthermore consultants are expected:

to develop courses outlines and design training courses for the target audience;

to develop e-courses, to develop and adapt training materials to a national context or to the specific needs of a group of professionals;

to ensure the quality of training materials;

to provide methodological advice on delivery of adult training;

to deliver training for the target audience, prepare and make presentations during workshops, seminars, study visits and round-tables.

In all assignments, post activity reports as a rule the consultant(s) shall elaborate on gender dimension and possible impact of proposed action on gender equality.

The present tendering procedure aims to select Providers to provide legislative review of criminal procedural legislation and deliver capacity building activities for legal professionals (judges, prosecutors, and lawyers) on ECHR and case-law of the ECtHR with focus on criminal justice and criminal procedure, fight against ill-treatment and impunity, deprivation of liberty, pre-trial detention, alternative measure to detention; investigation of serious human rights violations and is divided into following lots:
