Composition

• Members

Governments of member States are invited to designate one or more representatives of the highest possible rank in the field of Roma and Traveller issues.

The Council of Europe will, upon request, bear the travel and subsistence expenses of one representative of each member State.

Should there be more requests than budgetary means, travel and subsistence expenses will be reimbursed of one representative of the member States designated by the CDADI according to a method, which shall have due regard to geographical representation, periodic rotation of member States and the size of the Roma and Traveller population.

Each member of the Committee shall have one vote. Where a government designates more than one member, only one of them is entitled to take part in the voting.

The present is an explanatory footnote, not a definition of Roma and/or Travellers.

In addition, the following provisions shall apply:

The Chair of ADI-ROM will be invited to attend the meetings of the CDADI and its Bureau to inform them on progress with its work.

The ADI-ROM will form small thematic groups to analyse and evaluate specific issues identified by the Committee by means of exchanges of information and experiences (reporting) and thematic visits. Each thematic group is composed of one expert from a member State wishing to benefit from the experience of other member States (“requesting country”) and up to four experts from member States wishing to share their experience in this area (“partner country”). Experts of the thematic groups can be ADI-ROM members or other experts of the countries concerned appointed by the ADI-ROM, who should have specific expertise or responsibility for the topic of the visit. The requesting country invites the partner countries’ experts and the Secretariat to visit the country for a maximum of two and half days. With prior approval of the thematic group, representatives of European Institutions and agencies and of other international organisations having participant or observer status with the ADI-ROM, and members of the Secretariat of other relevant Council of Europe bodies, may participate in thematic visits at their own expense. The thematic reports resulting from those visits are discussed and adopted in ADI-ROM meetings and submitted to the CDADI for decision on the follow-up. The ADI-ROM will carry out two or more such peer-reviews per year.

The members of each thematic group will be invited to attend the ADI-ROM meeting at which their report is discussed. The travel and subsistence expenses related to their participation in that meeting will be reimbursed.

If an ADI-ROM meeting takes place in a member State, it may also be used for a thematic visit.

The ADI-ROM will appoint from amongst its members a Gender Equality Rapporteur and a Children’s Rights Rapporteur.

In derogation from Article 6 of Appendix 1 to Resolution CM/Res(2021)3, and in conformity with Article 17 of the same appendix, in addition to the official working languages of the Organisation (English, French), interpretation will be provided into the Romani language and the agenda translated into Romani for regular meetings whenever necessary and within the limits of available budgetary appropriations. Any adopted pertinent texts (e.g. Recommendations adopted by the Committee of Ministers) will also be translated into Romani.
