

Terms of reference of the Joint Council on Youth (CMJ)

Set up by the Committee of Ministers under Article 17 of the Statute of the Council of Europe and in accordance with Resolution CM/Res\(2021\)3-consolidated on intergovernmental committees and subordinate bodies, their terms of reference and working methods.

Category: Ad hoc committee

Duration: 1 January 2024 - 31 December 2027

Programme: Anchoring democratic values in European societies

Sub-programme: Youth

Main tasks

Under the authority of the Committee of Ministers, the CMJ oversees the Council of Europe's programme in the youth field and advise the Committee of Ministers on all questions within its area of competence. The CMJ, within the framework of the Council of Europe policy established by the Committee of Ministers, is the policy-making body of the youth sector, bringing together the members of the European Steering Committee for Youth (CDEJ) and the Advisory Council on Youth (CCJ).

In particular, the CMJ is instructed to:

- i. take due account of the Reykjavik Declaration<sup>1</sup> in conducting its activities and submit proposals for its implementation as appropriate;
- ii. take account of the relevant key findings and challenges set out in the Secretary General's annual reports on the state of democracy, human rights and rule of law<sup>2</sup> and contribute, where relevant, to the process towards a New Democratic Pact for Europe;
- iii. develop jointly between member States and non-governmental youth organisations standards of European youth policy with a view to submitting them, where appropriate, to the Committee of Ministers and other relevant bodies of the Council of Europe;
- iv. prepare the priorities of the youth sector and apportion the budgetary means available in the political and budgetary framework established by the Committee of Ministers;
- v. establish the youth sector's structure and policy for its programme implementation, in particular through the Strasbourg and Budapest European Youth Centres and the European Youth Foundation;
- vi. contribute to the integration of a youth perspective into other Council of Europe areas of work, building on the Reference Framework on a Youth Perspective;<sup>3</sup>
- vii. contribute to the cross-cutting activities of the Council of Europe that concern and impact youth, including as appropriate in the field of artificial intelligence;
- viii. where appropriate, contribute to the preparation of the Council of Europe Conferences of Ministers responsible for Youth and ensure, as appropriate, that any decisions taken by the Committee of Ministers subsequent to the Conferences are followed up;
- ix. identify opportunities for input and/or complementary measures and programmes by the Council of Europe taking into consideration the activities of other international organisations, in particular the European Union and the United Nations;
- x. implement the youth-related elements of the Council of Europe's thematic and country-specific action plans as necessary;
- xi. support youth participation as a way of revitalising pluralistic democracy, building on the achievements of the campaign "Democracy Here / Democracy Now" and its follow-up project; support the implementation of relevant Council of Europe standards, including the Recommendation CM/Rec(2022)6 on protecting youth civil society and young people, and supporting their participation in democratic processes, Recommendation Rec(2006)14 on citizenship and participation of young people in public life, and Congress Resolution 152(2003) on the Revised European Charter on the Participation of Young People in Local and Regional Life;
- xii. support young people's access to rights by promoting the implementation of the relevant Committee of Ministers' standards in this field, with special emphasis on: Recommendation CM/Rec(2016)7 on young people's access to rights, Recommendation CM/Rec(2015)3 on the access of young people from disadvantaged neighbourhoods to social rights (ENTER Recommendation), and Recommendation CM/Rec(2010)7 on the Council of Europe Charter on Education for Democratic Citizenship and Human Rights Education;
- xiii. support young people's capacities to promote peaceful and inclusive societies, with special emphasis on the implementation of relevant Council of Europe standards, including Recommendation CM/Rec(2019)4 on supporting young refugees in transition to adulthood and Recommendation CM/Rec(2023)4 of the Committee of Ministers on Roma youth participation; in this connection, equally support youth organisations and youth workers working with young people living in war zones or in areas of frozen conflict through intercultural dialogue, intercultural learning and peacebuilding activities;
- xiv. support youth work as a way of increasing the possibilities for all young people to contribute actively to society in their living environment, with special emphasis on the implementation of relevant Council of Europe standards, including Recommendation CM/Rec(2017)4 on youth work and the European Youth Work Agenda.
- xv. take stock regularly of the implementation of the Council of Europe Youth sector strategy 2030, as set out in Resolution CM/Res(2020)2, based on the conclusions of its mid-term review;
- xvi. provide input to the Committee of Ministers in view of the regular, high-level dialogue with member States and partners on delivering on the Reykjavik Principles for Democracy;

<sup>3</sup> To be adopted at the 10th Council of Europe Conference of Ministers Responsible for Youth (8-9 October 2025, Valletta, Malta).

- xvii. raise-awareness about Council of Europe standards and tools in its field of competence in the member States and beyond, through the neighbourhood policy and in other international and global fora where relevant;
- xviii. hold an exchange of views annually in order to evaluate its activities and advise the Committee of Ministers and the Secretary General on future priorities in its sector, including possible new activities and those that might be discontinued;
- xix. take due account of the following mainstreamed perspectives in the performance of its tasks: gender, children's rights, rights of persons with disabilities, and Roma and Traveller<sup>4</sup> issues;
- xx. where relevant, contribute to strengthening meaningful engagement with civil society organisations and national human rights institutions in its work;
- xxi. contribute to the achievement of, and review progress towards, the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, in particular with regards to Goal 1: No poverty; Goal 3: Good health and well-being; Goal 4: Quality Education; Goal 5: Gender Equality; Goal 8: Decent work and economic growth; Goal 10: Reduce inequality; Goal 11: Sustainable Cities and Communities and Goal 16: Peace, Justice and Strong institutions.
