B. EXPECTED DELIVERABLES

Background

The Project aims to provide support for the effective implementation of the Code on Rights of the Child (2019) and the Juvenile Justice Code (2015) as well as the Child Rights Section of the newly adopted Human Rights Strategy (2022-2030) in Georgia. Its objective is to further strengthen the quality of response to violence against children, including online child sexual exploitation and abuse, in Georgia. In this regard, the project continues to further align the Georgian national legal and policy framework with the Lanzarote Convention and recommendations of the Lanzarote Committee related to child rights and combating sexual violence against children. The Project builds on past Council of Europe (CoE) projects, implemented since 2017.

In order to ensure synergies with existing interventions as well as sustainability and local ownership of the Project, activities will be planned and implemented in close collaboration with national partners and key stakeholders in Georgia.

Expected results/outcomes:

- Strengthening legal and policy frameworks

To further support Georgian national legal and policy reform in line with the Council of Europe's standards, to address the needs identified by the Lanzarote Committee and the Public Defender's Office of Georgia with respect to the protection of children from violence, including online.

- Capacity building

To strengthen the capacities of police investigators, prosecutors, and other professionals to effectively safeguard rights of victims and witnesses of sexual exploitation and abuse.

- Awareness raising

To reinforce the awareness of children, parents and adults working for and with children on what child sexual exploitation and abuse correspond to, including online child sexual exploitation and abuse, how to identify it, how to report it, and how to seek help.

The Council of Europe is looking for maximum 30 Providers Provider(s) (provided enough tenders meet the criteria indicated below) in order to support the implementation of the project with a particular expertise on effective prevention and protection against child sexual exploitation and abuse, as well as online safety for children.

This Contract is currently estimated to cover up to 20 activities, to be held by 31 May 2026. This estimate is for information only and shall not constitute any sort of contractual commitment on the part of the Council of Europe. The Contract may potentially represent a higher or lower number of activities, depending on the evolving needs of the Organisation.

For information purposes only, the total amount of the object of present tender shall not exceed 55 000 Euros tax exclusive for the whole duration of the Framework Contract. This information does not constitute any sort of contractual commitment or obligation on the part of the Council of Europe.

Lots

The present tendering procedure aims to select Provider(s) to support the implementation of the project and is divided into the following lots:

| Lots | Maximum number of Providers to be selected |
|--|--|
| Lot 1: Expert Research Services with a focus on legislative and policy framework and practices | 10 |
| Lot 2: Development of Capacity Building materials and Training Services | 10 |
| Lot 3: Development of Awareness Raising materials and Services | 10 |

Lot 1 concerns research services with a focus on legislation, governance policies and practices to prevent and combat child sexual exploitation and abuse and in particular Child Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (CSEA), identify shortcomings and needs in the Georgian child rights' system. The hired consultant will conduct a gap analysis, formulate recommendations and draft a report to improve Georgian legal and policy framework related to child sexual exploitation and abuse, including online child sexual exploitation and abuse (OCSEA).

Lot 2 concerns development of relevant training sessions and conduct capacity building events. The hired consultant will develop capacity building materials aiming to combat child sexual exploitation and abuse, especially OCSEA. The expert will then train professionals working for and with children in Georgia.

Lot 3 concerns awareness raising services on the prevention and protection of children against sexual exploitation and sexual abuse. The hired consultant will develop awareness raising materials aiming to prevent and respond to child sexual exploitation and abuse, notably OCSEA. The expert raises the awareness of children, parents and professionals working for and with children in Georgia.

The Council will select the abovementioned number of Provider(s) per lot, provided enough tenders meet the criteria indicated below. Tenderers are invited to indicate which lot(s) they are tendering for (see Section A of the Act of Engagement).
